

Addinput File

name_addinput.txt: this contains information to run the simulation in terminal mode.

This file will contain all the additional input data fed into CrystalGrower at runtime. This file can easily be fed back into CrystalGrower with the < symbol in the terminal. There is no specific file format, just a list of numbers and strings that respond to the follow-up questions from the options chosen in input.txt.