Christ Sanctified All Water by His Baptism

“The Lord Jesus came to baptism and willed to have his holy body washed with water. Perhaps someone will say: ‘Why did he who is holy want to be baptized?’ Listen, then! Christ is baptized not that he may be sanctified in the waters but that he himself may sanctify the waters and purify by his own purification the streams he touches... For when the savior is washed, then all water is cleansed for our baptism and the fount is purified, so that the grace of the washing may be administered to the peoples who would come after. Christ takes the lead in baptism, then, so that the Christian peoples might follow with confidence” (St. Maximus of Turin).

Saints of the Week

Friday, Jan. 13th: Saint Hilary, Bishop, Doctor of the Church; died 367 at age 58; married and convert from paganism; leading opponent of Arianism in the West; most noted work: De Trinitate.

Cristo Santificó todo el Agua por su Bautismo

“El Señor Jesús vino al bautismo y quiso que su cuerpo santo fuera lavado con agua. Quizás alguien dirá: "¿Por qué el que es santo quería ser bautizado?" ¡Escucha, entonces! Cristo es bautizado no para que pueda ser santificado en las aguas sino para que él mismo santifique las aguas y purifique con su propia purificación las corrientes que toca ... Porque cuando el salvador es lavado, entonces todo el agua se limpia para nuestro bautismo y la fuente se purifica, de modo que la gracia del lavado se pueda administrar a los pueblos que vendrían después. Cristo toma la delantera en el bautismo para que los pueblos cristianos puedan seguirlo con confianza ”(San Máximo de Turín).
