LIVING JUSTLY

“You give that back right now!” How many of us have heard that line, probably more than once, as we were growing up? We come home with the trophy of what we thought was a really sweet deal, only to have our parents undo our profits by making us return the spoils. They had a different idea of what constituted a “fair trade agreement.” Justice in our dealings with others continues to be an important measure of our character, and like a good parent, God cares very much about how we treat each other and about how others treat us. God hears the cry of the poor, and answers the call of the oppressed. God’s beloved children are not to behave like bullies.

Dear Parishioners,
The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Soul’s Day) falls this year on Monday, November

2. On that day I will celebrate the holy Mass (English and Spanish) at 6:30 pm.

The traditional Exposition and Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament of the First Friday will not be held this November. Those days Tuesday 3 to Friday 6 of November I will be taking them as days of rest.

Faith Formation classes will also have a recess during that first week of November.

Saints of the Week

Wednesday, Oct. 28th: Saint Simon and Saint Jude, Apostles; Simon called "the Canaanite" and also "the Zealot" an anti-Roman party; possibly preached in Egypt and Persia. Jude may have preached in Palestine and Persia; patron of those in despair or in hopeless situations, perhaps because of the similarity of his name with that of Judas Iscariot, who betrayed Jesus and despaired.

Blessed be All Saints

The Solemnity of All Saints on November 1 has taken place for many centuries. In ancient Rome, this feast was celebrated as the feast of "the nameless martyrs."

Over time, this has become one of the most popular holy days, probably because people see it as an unpublished celebration of holiness of people they have known — grandparents, parents, friends — who were good and holy people. The salt of the earth.

Most people who exercise good Stewardship with their talents and money don't always claim their actions. But God doesn't forget them. Not those who are close to those who are the salt of the earth.

That is why the Church celebrates the Solemnity of All Saints.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

There is a show on public television in which people search their attics for heirlooms, dust them off, and trek them downtown for ruthless evaluation by teams of antique experts. Occasionally the owners are surprised to learn they have been harboring priceless artifacts: a Tiffany bowl used to catch the car keys, a Van Gogh in the downstairs bathroom. What they lugged downtown in a paper bag, they carry home in bubble wrap and receiving blankets.

It's the same way with treasures in Church life. Lots of things were lugged up into the attic years ago, and it was inevitable that some treasures ended up in the trash. Many Catholics tucked the sacrament of penance away in a dusty corner. We know it's there if we need it, but it is not the weekly routine it once was, like the Saturday bath "whether I need it or not." Today, especially in Lent and Advent or as part of personal preparation for marriage, ordination, or other life transitions, the sacrament of penance is a treasure of the Christian life waiting to be discovered. What's in your attic?

VIVIR EN JUSTICIA

“¡Devuélvelo ahora mismo!” ¿Cuántas veces hemos escuchado esa frase, probablemente más de una vez, cuando éramos niños? Llegamos a casa con el trofeo que consideramos un dulce hallazgo, para que nuestros padres deshicieran nuestras ganancias haciéndonos devolver el botín. Ellos tenían un concepto muy diferente de lo que constituye un acuerdo “de intercambio justo”. La justicia en nuestros tratos con otros constituye una importante medida de nuestro carácter, como un buen padre de familia, a Dios le importa mucho cómo nos tratamos los unos a los otros y cómo los otros nos tratan a nosotros. Dios oye el clamor de los pobres y responde al llamado de los oprimidos. Los hijos bien amados de Dios no se han de comportar como abusadores.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — Dios escucha el llanto de los oprimidos (Éxodo 22:20-26).

Salmo — Te amo, oh Señor, mi fuerza (Salmo 18 [17]).

Segunda lectura — El pueblo de Dios es conocido por su conversión y amor de Dios (1 Tesalonicenses 1:5c-10).

Evangelio — La ley principal es la ley del amor (Mateo 22:34-40).

Bendito Sean Todos los Santos

La Solemnidad de todos los Santos el 1 de Noviembre lleva muchos siglos. En la antigua Roma, esta fiesta fue celebrada como la fiesta de “los mártires sin nombre”.

Con el paso del tiempo, este ha venido a ser uno de los días santos más populares, probablemente porque la gente ve en él, una celebración de santidad no publicada de gente que ellos han conocido— abuelos, padres, amigos — quienes fueron buenas y santas personas. La sal de tierra.

La mayoría de la gente que ejercita una buena corresponsabilidad con sus talentos y dinero no siempre dejan sus nombres impresos en placas. Pero Dios no olvida esto. Ni a aquellos que están cerca de estos que son sal de la tierra.

Por eso es que la Iglesia celebra la Fiesta de Todos los Santos.
