A LITTLE FAITH

Today our readings are about faith, frustration, and how much is enough. Habakkuk is a complainer having an argument with God. Timothy is encouraging a community challenged by cowardice and the apostles want more faith than they have. Things aren't happening fast enough for any of them or for us. All of them and we want God to do something sooner rather than later and we want God to give us a reason to believe that it will all work out. What does God do? God puts it back on them—and us—telling Habakkuk to describe the world he wants; telling the apostles to do more than the expected. Doing more with less is a familiar phrase today and a reminder that a little faith may be enough even for the most difficult times.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The just ones, because of their faith, shall live (Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4).

Psalm — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — Bear hardship with the strength that comes from God (2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14).

Gospel — The apostles said to Jesus, "Increase our faith" (Luke 17:5-10).

Pope's Monthly Intention

Dear Parishioners,

October is Respect Life month in the Catholic Church. The first Sunday in October is Respect Life

Sunday. During this month, and especially this Sunday, the Church invites us to reflect on the precious gift of life.

Respect life is vast subject that not only deals with respect of the unborn. Abortion is the chief theme in respect for human life, followed by other themes such as euthanasia, suicide, intentional homicide, capital punishment, and legitimate defense. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains all these themes under the teaching on the Fifth Commandment (numbers 2258-2283).

During this month we will include petitions of respect of human life in our Sunday liturgies. We will also include some small articles on the subject in the bulletin this month.

Please keep this theme of Respect Life in your prayers during his month.

Sincerely, Fr. Arturo

HOW TO BUILD A CULTURE OF LIFE

Watching the news and reading the headlines, we may feel helpless seeing the heartbreaking lack of respect for human life. How do we respond? Changing the culture is a process of conversion that begins in our own hearts. When we encounter Christ, experience His love, and deepen our relationship with Him, we become more aware of our own immeasurable worth and that of others. His unchanging love is the source of our God-given dignity, which, therefore, cannot be taken away. When someone is facing great trials, we need to walk with them on their journey, intercede for them, and be open to sharing Christ's love however He directs. We simply need to follow where He leads.

6 de octubre de 2019 Vigésimo Séptimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

UN POCO DE FE

Hoy nuestras lecturas son acerca de la fe, la frustración y cuánto es suficiente. El profeta Habacuc es un quejoso que tiene una discusión con Dios. Timoteo está animando a una comunidad desafiada por la cobardía y los apóstoles quieren más fe de la que tienen. Las cosas no suceden lo suficientemente rápido para ninguno de ellos. Todos ellos y nosotros queremos que Dios haga algo mucho más pronto que tarde y queremos que Dios nos dé una razón para creer que todo saldrá bien. ¿Qué es lo que quiere Dios? Dios se lo devuelve a ellos, y a nosotros, diciéndole a Habacuc que describa el mundo que él quiere; diciéndole a los apóstoles hacer más de lo que se espera. Haciendo más con menos es una frase muy conocida hoy y un recuerdo que un poco de fe puede ser suficiente incluso en los momentos difíciles.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — A pesar de violencia, destrucción y ruina, el justo vivirá a causa de su fe (Habacuc 1:2-3; 2:2-4).

Salmo — Señor, que no seamos sordos a tu voz (Salmo 95 [94]).

Segunda lectura — Tolera dificultades con la fuerza que viene de Dios (2 Timoteo 1:6-8, 13-14).

Evangelio — ¡Señor, auméntanos la fe! (Lucas 17:5-10).

La Intención Mensual del Papa Octubre 2019:

Apreciados Parroquianos,

Octubre es el mes de Respeto a la Vida en la Iglesia Católica. El primer domingo de octubre es el Domingo de Respeto a la Vida. Durante este mes, y especialmente este domingo, la Iglesia nos invita a reflexionar sobre el precioso regalo de la vida.

Respetar la vida es un tema vasto que no solo trata el respeto de los no nacidos. El tema principal del respeto a la vida humana es el aborto, seguido de otros temas como la eutanasia, el suicidio, el homicidio intencional, la pena capital y la defensa legítima. El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica explica todos estos temas bajo la enseñanza del Quinto Mandamiento (números 2258-2283).

Durante este mes incluiremos peticiones de respeto a la vida humana en nuestras liturgias dominicales. También incluiremos algunos pequeños artículos sobre el tema en el boletín de este mes.

Mantenga este tema de Respeto a la vida en sus oraciones durante su mes.

Cordialmente, Padre Arturo

EDIFICAR UNA CULTURA DE VIDA

Mirando las noticias y leyendo los titulares, podemos sentirnos impotentes al ver la desoladora falta de respeto por la vida humana. ¿Cómo respondemos? Cambiar la cultura es un proceso de conversión que comienza en nuestro propio corazón. Al encontrarnos con Cristo, sentir su amor y profundizar nuestra relación con él, somos más conscientes de nuestro propio inconmensurable valor y el de los demás. Su amor inmutable es la fuente de nuestra dignidad dada por Dios, que, por lo tanto, no nos puede ser quitada. Cuando una persona está enfrentando grandes pruebas, tememos que acompañarla en su camino, interceder por ella y estar abiertos a compartir el amor de Cristo como él lo indique. Basa con ir por donde él nos conduce.

Este es un resumen de un artículo del Programa Respetemos la Vida de la Conferencia de Obispos de los Estados Unidos con el mismo nombre, y se reproduce con permiso.

From the Catechism on Human Life

#2258 Human life is sacred because from its beginning it involves the creative action of God and it remains for ever in a special relationship with the Creator, who is its sole end. God alone is the Lord of life from its beginning until its end: no one can under any circumstance claim for himself the right directly to destroy an innocent human being.
