CONFIDENCE IN THE LORD

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year. Today's readings remind us that our own lives will draw to a close one day, and we can be certain that the Lord will encourage, strengthen, and save us—both now and at the last. The astonishing story of the Maccabees invigorates our faith as we behold an entire family willing to die rather than deny the Law of Moses. The psalm response echoes the faithful cries of the Maccabees: "I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God." That same confidence appears in Saint Paul's letter to the Thessalonians. "The Lord is faithful," he testifies; "he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one." In the Gospel, Jesus explains just how long God's protection will endure. The children of God whom God guards, Jesus says, will live forever like angels.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The King of the world will raise us up to live again forever (2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14).

Psalm — Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full (Psalm 17).

Second Reading — May the Lord encourage and strengthen your hearts (2 Thessalonians 2:16 — 3:5).

Gospel — Those who are deemed worthy of the coming age can no longer die (Luke 20:27-38 [27, 34-38]).

Pope's Monthly Intention

November 2019:

Dialogue and Reconciliation in the Near East

That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together.

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

As the visit from our Bishop approaches, I would like to point to his Coat of Arms as a way to learn more about him.

Sincerely, Fr. Arturo

On July 5, 2017, Pope Francis named Bishop Zarama the sixth bishop of the Diocese of Raleigh, North Carolina.

Bishop Zarama's motto is "God is love." For his coat of arms, Bishop Zarama adopted a design to reflect his life and ministry as a priest.

On a blue field is displayed an extra wide chevron of Gold (yellow). This device gives the illusion of two mountains; a gold one and a blue one. The gold mountain (the chevron) is charged with a scattering (semé) of red crosses to represent the bishop's home city of Pasto, in southwestern Colombia, which is known as "The Theological City." The lower mountain (part of the blue field) has a golden lion's head to represent the Evangelist, Saint Mark, who is the titular patron of the parish in Clarkesville, Georgia, on a mountain, where Bishop Zarama served as pastor.

Above the chevron are a gold rose for Saint Theresa of the Child Jesus, also known as "The Little Flower," and a silver (white) lily for Saint Joseph, the Foster Father of Jesus, who have served as Bishop Zarama's particular patrons throughout his life as a priest and now as a bishop.

The achievement is completed with the external ornaments, which are a gold episcopal processional cross that is placed in back of and which extends above and below the shield, and the pontifical hat, called a "galero," with its six tassels, in three rows, on either side of the shield, all in green.

A diocesan bishop shows his commitment to the flock he shepherds by combining his personal coat of arms with that of the diocese, in a technique known as impaling. The shield is divided in half along the pale, or central vertical line. The arms of the diocese appear on the dexter side—that is, on the side of the shield to the viewer's left, which would cover the right side (in Latin, dextera) of the person carrying the shield. The arms of the bishop are on the sinister side—the bearer's left, the viewer's right.

BISHOP LUIS RAFAEL ZARAMA'S PARISH VISIT

Our Bishop will be visiting Holy Spirit on Sunday, November 24th. There will only be one Mass celebrated on that Sunday at 10:00am (a bilingual Mass). Faith Formation classes will be cancelled on that day. Everyone is invited to come and meet Bishop Luis Rafael.

COLLECTION FOR THE ARCHDIOCESE FOR THE MILITARY SERVICES, USA

On the Sunday before Veterans Day, every third year, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops takes up a collection nationwide to support the Archdiocese for the Military Services. This unique Archdiocese is faced with many challenges, including a severe shortage of Catholic priest-chaplains, a flock spread out among military installations across the world, and in constant transition. The Archdiocese receives no funding from the military or the government and must rely solely on private donors. This year the Sunday before Veterans Day is November 10th. The monthly collection for Outreach has been scheduled for that date at Holy Spirit. There will not be a third collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services on November 10th. Envelopes prepared for this collection are available in the atrium and anyone who would like to support this Archdiocese may use them. Donations for this collection can be made at any Sunday in November. Thank you.

CONFIANZA EN EL SEÑOR

Estamos cerca del fin del año litúrgico. Las lecturas de hoy nos recuerdan que nuestras vidas se acercarán a su final un día, y podemos estar seguros de que el Señor nos animará, fortalecerá y salvará, tanto ahora y al final. La asombrosa historia de los macabeos revitaliza nuestra fe mientras contemplamos a una familia entera dispuesta a morir en lugar de negar la Ley de Moisés. La respuesta del salmo hace eco a los gritos fieles de los macabeos "Te invoqué, y me respondiste, Señor". La misma confianza aparece en la carta de san Pablo a los tesalonicenses. "El Señor es fiel", él da testimonio, "él te fortalecerá y protegerá del maligno". En el Evangelio, Jesús explica por cuánto tiempo la protección de Dios perdurará. Los hijos de Dios a quien Dios cuida, Jesús dice, vivirán por siempre, como los ángeles.

LECTURAS DE HOY

Primera lectura — El rey del universo nos resucitará para una vida eterna (2 Macabeos 7:1-2, 9-14).

Salmo — Al despertar, Señor, contemplaré tu rostro (Salmo 17 [16]).

Segunda lectura — Que el Señor los anime y fortalezca en todas las obras (2 Tesalonicenses 2:16 — 3:5).

Evangelio — Aquellos que son dignos de llegar a la edad futura son hijos de Dios (Lucas 20:27-38) [27, 34-38].

La Intención Mensual del Papa

Noviembre 2019:

Diálogo y reconciliación en el Cercano Oriente

Para que pueda surgir un espíritu de diálogo, encuentro y reconciliación en el Cercano Oriente, donde diversas comunidades religiosas comparten sus vidas juntas.

Notas del Párroco

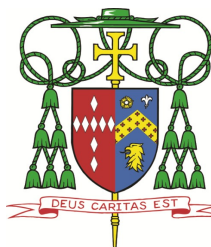

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Apreciados Parroquianos,

A medida que se acerca la visita de nuestro Obispo, me gustaría señalar su Escudo como una forma de aprender más sobre él.

Cordialmente, Padre Arturo

El 5 de julio de 2017, el papa Francisco nombró al obispo Zarama el sexto obispo de la diócesis de Raleigh, Carolina del Norte.

El lema del obispo Zarama es "Dios es amor". Para su escudo, el obispo Zarama adoptó un diseño para reflejar su vida y ministerio como sacerdote.

En un campo azul se muestra un galón extra ancho de oro (amarillo). Este dispositivo da la ilusión de dos montañas; uno dorado y uno azul. La montaña de oro (el galón) está cargada con una dispersión (semé) de cruces rojas para representar a Pasto, la ciudad natal del obispo, en el suroeste de Colombia, que se conoce como "La Ciudad Teológica". La montaña más baja (parte del campo azul) tiene una cabeza de león de oro para representar al evangelista, San Marcos, quien es el patrón titular de la parroquia en Clarkesville, Georgia, en una montaña, donde el obispo Zarama sirvió como párroco.

Sobre el galón hay una rosa de oro para Santa Teresa del Niño Jesús, también conocida como "La Florecilla", y un lirio plateado (blanco) para San José, el Padre adoptivo de Jesús, que han servido como patronos particulares del Obispo Zarama su vida como sacerdote y ahora como obispo.

El diseño se completa con los adornos externos, que son una cruz procesional episcopal de oro que se coloca detrás y que se extiende por encima y por debajo del escudo, y el sombrero pontificio, llamado "galero", con sus seis borlas, en tres filas, a cada lado del escudo, todo en verde.

Un obispo diocesano muestra su compromiso con el rebaño que pastorea combinando su escudo personal con el de la diócesis, en una técnica conocida como empalar. El escudo se divide por la mitad a lo largo de la línea vertical central. El escudo de la diócesis aparece en el lado diestro, es decir, en el lado del escudo a la izquierda del espectador, que cubriría el lado derecho (en latín, dextera) de la persona que porta el escudo. El escudo del obispo está la lado siniestro: la izquierda del portador, la derecha del espectador.

VISITA A LA PARROQUIA DEL OBISPO LUIS RAFAEL ZARAMA

Nuestro Obispo visitará la parroquia el domingo 24 de noviembre. Solo habrá una misa celebrada ese domingo a las 10:00 am (una misa bilingüe). Las clases de Formación de Fe serán canceladas ese día. Todos están invitados a conocer al obispo Luis Rafael.

Circle of Renewed Life Toy Drive

The Circle of Renewed Life is sponsoring a Christmas Toy Drive for the 300 children in the care of the Guardian ad Litem program. A Guardian ad Litem is a advocate volunteer the court appoints to investigate what solutions are in the best interest of the child/children who are in the court system through no fault of their own. These children in the system will not be receiving gifts for Christmas without our assistance. There will be a box in the atrium for parishioners to leave an unwrapped toy. The children are all ages. Toys will be collected through November 30th. Thank you for your support.

Colecta de Juguetes del Círculo de Vida Renovada

El Círculo de Vida Renovada está patrocinando una colecta de juguetes para los 300 niños bajo el cuidado del programa Guardian ad Litem. Un Guardian ad Litem es una persona que el tribunal designa para investigar qué soluciones son las mejores para el niño que está en el sistema judicial sin culpa propia. Estos niños no recibirán regalos para Navidad sin nuestra ayuda. Habrá una caja en el atrio para que los feligreses dejen un juguete sin envolver. Los niños son de todas las edades. La fecha límite para traer regalos es el 30 de noviembre. Gracias por tu apoyo.

VETERANS DAY

Circle of Renewed Life

The Circle of Renewed Life will meet on Thursday, November 21st in the conference room at 2:00 PM. Our guest speaker will be Chris Jenkins, of Hope Restorations. Hostesses are Pat Kasprzyk and Helen Uhlig. All ladies of the parish are welcomed to attend.

Angel Tree

We are looking for children whose parents are having difficulty providing Christmas items for their children this year. Parents will be able to fill out the form for their child (ren) beginning the weekend of November 17 after all the Masses. December 1 will be the LAST weekend to sign up your child(ren). The weekend of December 1, the Angel Tree will be in the atrium, for everyone in the parish to help a child(ren) by taking an angel from the tree and buying gifts for that child(ren).

Árbol de Ángeles

Estamos buscando niños cuyos padres tengan dificultades para proporcionar regalos de Navidad para sus hijos este año. Los padres podrán completar el formulario para sus hijos a partir del fin de semana del 17 de noviembre. El 1 de diciembre será el ÚLTIMO fin de semana para inscribir a su hijo / hijos. El fin de semana del 1 de diciembre el Angel Tree estará en el atrio, para que todos en la parroquia ayuden a un niño / niños tomando un ángel del árbol y comprando regalos para ese niño / niños.

Wedding

We express our congratulations to Kristina Miller and Daniel Cale, who were married at Holy Spirit on Saturday, November 2nd.

Boda

Expresamos nuestras felicitaciones a Kristina Miller y Daniel Cale, quienes se casaron en la Iglesia el sábado 2 de noviembre.
