Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
GOD WANTS TO BE KNOWN

The Old Testament reading from Deuteronomy praises God for inscribing the commandments in our very bodies. God's law is not distant or foreign, but a natural part of us. In his letter to the Colossians, Saint Paul echoes Moses, praising God for becoming one of us. The truly human, flesh-and-blood Jesus reminds us that God always wants to be recognizable and familiar to us. Jesus, who is also truly God, wants to be on intimate terms with each of us.

God's passionate desire to be known by us is almost too wonderful to take in. Luke's Gospel helps us understand how to respond. The Good Samaritan parable provides practical advice for those who believe in God's intimate love for them and want to share that love with others.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — The word of the LORD is very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading — Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel — The Samaritan traveler was moved with compassion at the sight of the man stripped and beaten by robbers (Luke 10:25-37).

Pope's Monthly Intention

July 2019:

The Integrity of Justice

That those who administer justice may work with integrity, and that the injustice which prevails in the world may not have the last word.

Dear Parishioners,
I would like to thank Mrs. Patty Keesee for serving so faithfully and generously as our parish of Religious Education Director for 11 years. Patty helped planning and organizing the children's Faith Formation. She was also a catechist, focusing on the older children that needed baptism (what is called the Rite of Christian Initiation of Children). Patty has come in contact with so many children from our parish that she has become part of their education and formation.

Mrs. Maria Jones joined Patty last year in co-directing the Faith Formation of children in an effort to help with a transition in this role. Maria has already taken over the direction of the children's Faith Formation. I would like to thank Maria for volunteering in providing this essential ministry in our parish. I wish Maria all the best wishes for her new ministry.

A little reception will be offered in honor of Patty on a Sunday morning (after the 9:00am Mass) in August to thank her for her invaluable ministry. The date is still to be determined.

Patty will continue serving our parish as Bookkeeper and office assistant.

Sincerely, Fr. Arturo

HAPPINESS

Since happiness is nothing else but the enjoyment of the Supreme good, and the Supreme good is above us, no one can be happy who does not rise above oneself.

—St. Bonaventure

Our Lady of Mount Carmel
July 16th

This is the patronal feast of the Carmelites. The Order of Carmelites takes its name from Mount Carmel, which was the first place dedicated to the Blessed Virgin and where a chapel was erected in honor before her Assumption into heaven.

July 16 is also the feast of the "Scapular of Mount Carmel." On that day in 1251, pious tradition says, the Blessed Virgin appeared to St. Simon Stock, General of the Carmelites at Cambridge, England, showed him the scapular and promised supernatural favors and her special protection to his Order and to all persons who would wear her scapular.

To obtain the indulgences and other benefits promised to those who wear the Carmelite scapular, a person must be invested by a priest who has the requisite faculties and must lead a consistent Christian life.

EL DESEO DE DIOS PARA SER CONOCIDO

La lectura del Antiguo Testamento del libro del Deuteronomio alaba a Dios por escribir los mandamientos en nuestros cuerpos. La ley de Dios no es extraña o distante, sino una parte natural de nosotros. En su carta a los colosenses, san Pablo hace eco de Moisés, alabando a Dios por ser uno de nosotros. Él, verdaderamente humano, de carne y hueso, Jesús nos recuerda que Dios siempre quiere ser para nosotros alguien familiar a quien podemos reconocer; el que es verdadero Dios, quiere estar en buenos términos con cada uno de nosotros.

El deseo apasionado de Dios para ser conocido por nosotros es tan maravilloso para disfrutarse. El Evangelio de Lucas nos ayuda a entender cómo responder. La parábola del Buen Samaritano nos provee de consejos prácticos para quienes creen en la intimidad del amor de Dios para ellos y quiere compartir ese amor con otros.

La Intención Mensual del Papa

Notas del Párroco

Apreciados Parroquianos,
Me gustaría agradecer a la Sra.
Patty Keesee por servir tan fiel y generosamente como nuestra

Directora de Educación Religiosa de la parroquia durante 11 años. Patty ayudó a planificar y organizar el catecismo de los niños. También era catequista y se enfocaba en los niños mayores que necesitaban el bautismo (lo que se llama el Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de los Niños). Patty ha estado en contacto con tantos niños de nuestra parroquia que se ha convertido en parte de su educación y formación.

La Sra. María Jones se unió a Patty el año pasado para codirigir la Formación en la Fe de los niños en un esfuerzo por ayudar con una transición en este papel. María ya ha tomado la dirección del catecismo de los niños. Me gustaría agradecer a María por ofrecerse como voluntaria para brindar este ministerio esencial en nuestra parroquia. Le deseo a María los mejores deseos para su nuevo ministerio.

Se ofrecerá una pequeña recepción en honor de Patty un domingo por la mañana (después de la misa de las 9:00 am) en agosto para agradecerle por su inestimable ministerio. La fecha aún está por determinarse.

Patty continuará sirviendo a nuestra parroquia como Contadora y asistente de oficina.

Cordialmente, Padre Arturo

FELICIDAD

Puesto que la felicidad no es más que disfrutar el bien Supremo, y el bien Supremo está por encima de nosotros, nadie puede ser feliz si no se eleva por encima de sí mismo.

—San Buenaventura

Nuestra Señora del Monte Carmel 16 de Julio

Esta es la fiesta patronal de los carmelitas. La Orden de los Carmelitas toma su nombre del Monte Carmelo, que fue el primer lugar dedicado a la Santísima Virgen y donde se erigió una capilla en honor antes de su Asunción al cielo.

El 16 de julio es también la fiesta del “Escapulario del Monte Carmelo”. Ese día, en 1251, según la tradición piadosa, la Santísima Virgen se apareció a San Simón Stock, General de los Carmelitas en Cambridge, Inglaterra, le mostró el escapulario y prometió favores sobrenaturales y su protección especial para su Orden y para todas las personas que lo usarían como escapulario.

Para obtener las indulgencias y otros beneficios prometidos a quienes usan el escapulario carmelita, una persona debe ser investida por un sacerdote que tenga las facultades necesarias y debe llevar una vida cristiana coherente.
