Who Qualifies for Opportunity Scholarship?

K-12 grade students residing within the boundaries of a low-achieving school district as of the first day of classes are eligible to apply for an Opportunity Scholarship. Eligible students include children residing within the boundaries of a low-achieving school district who according to the Pennsylvania Department of Education:

- Currently attend a low-achieving school
- Are currently enrolled in non-public school; or
- Were previously home schooled; or
- Were previously attending a charter or cyber charter school

Who Qualifies? Qualifying families must reside in the Commonwealth of PA and the student must attend a school in the Commonwealth of PA. A family consisting of one child and one adult with a household income of $105,183 or less qualifies under the state guidelines. An income allowance of $18,514 is allotted for each additional child and dependent member of the household.

Example:

- 1 adult & 1 child - maximum household income of $105,183
- 2 adults & 1 child - maximum household income of $123,697
- 2 adults & 2 children - maximum household income of $142,211

The Children's Scholarship Fund of PA provides scholarships to low and middle-income families who meet the PA state guidelines.
