

PRESS RELEASE

San Antonio Nursing Non-Profit, helping Uvalde Shooting Second victim.

SAINA is a non-profit Nursing organization that has always responded to the needs of the San Antonio and Neighboring communities. SAINA feels deeply saddened due to the heinous act in Uvalde yesterday. SAINA understands the toll this has taken on the whole town including the healthcare team that is still trying to recover from yesterday.

Today at 8pm, SAINA will be donating food and cookies to the staff of Uvalde Memorial Hospital, South Texas Regional Advisory Council (STRAC), Uvalde Police Department and some EMS units to show our support and compassion to these healthcare workers that were the frontline of treating patients, families and were also affected by this event as second victims. A Facebook fundraiser is also underway to add to the Robb Elementary school Memorial funds by SAINA.
