

Blurb to add to information and consent form

This practice uses Recovery Metrics, a secure tool designed to track treatment progress and enhance the quality of care. By accessing our services, you consent to the collection and analysis of information you provide through electronically administered questionnaires. Your data is handled in accordance with Australian privacy laws, securely stored, and accessed only by authorised practitioners. You may withdraw your consent at any time by notifying our practice.