Fogel G. Shimp

Independent Candidate for President - 2028

ACCOUNTABILITY | INTEGRITY | RULE OF LAW

This discussion draft directs appropriate federal authorities to authenticate and assess reported public statements attributed to Rabbi Yom Tov Glaser that may concern threats toward the United States or United States persons. It does not presume the authenticity, context, criminality, or intent of any statement and does not predetermine an investigative or prosecutorial outcome.

EXECUTIVE ORDER

FEDERAL THREAT ASSESSMENT AND LAWFUL REVIEW OF STATEMENTS ATTRIBUTED TO RABBI YOM TOV GLASER

By the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and the laws of the United States of America, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Section 1. Purpose and Policy.

Credible information suggesting a threat of violence or other unlawful action against the United States or United States persons warrants professional assessment regardless of the speaker's nationality, religion, political viewpoint, or occupation. At the same time, protected speech and religious or political expression shall not be treated as criminal merely because they are controversial, offensive, or critical of the United States.

Sec. 2. Referral and Authentication.

- (a) The Attorney General, in coordination with the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other appropriate officials, shall receive and assess lawfully obtained recordings, transcripts, and related materials concerning statements publicly attributed to Rabbi Yom Tov Glaser that reasonably may be understood as threatening the United States or United States persons.
- (b) The review shall first seek to authenticate the relevant recordings, determine whether they have been materially edited or altered, identify the complete context where reasonably obtainable, and establish an accurate transcript and translation where necessary.
- (c) Nothing in this order constitutes a finding that the attributed statements are authentic, unlawful, or criminal.

Sec. 3. Threat Assessment.

Appropriate federal officials shall determine whether authenticated statements, considered in context and together with any lawfully obtained corroborating evidence, indicate a credible threat, solicitation, conspiracy, material support for unlawful violence, or other conduct within federal jurisdiction. The assessment shall distinguish protected advocacy or rhetoric from conduct meeting applicable legal standards for investigation.

Sec. 4. Interagency Coordination.

The Attorney General may coordinate, as appropriate and within lawful jurisdiction, with the Secretary of Homeland Security, Secretary of State, Director of National Intelligence, Director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and other federal departments and agencies possessing relevant information. Foreign-intelligence activities shall be conducted only under applicable intelligence authorities and oversight requirements.

Sec. 5. Foreign and National-Security Information.

Where relevant to an authorized threat assessment, the Secretary of State and appropriate Intelligence Community elements may identify lawfully available information concerning foreign affiliations, travel, organizational relationships, financing, or contacts that bear directly on a credible national-security threat. Mere religious, ideological, or political association shall not itself establish suspicion of criminal conduct.

Sec. 6. Preservation of Relevant Federal Records.

Executive departments and agencies possessing potentially relevant federal records shall preserve them consistent with applicable records, investigative, intelligence, and evidentiary requirements. Nothing in this order authorizes unlawful acquisition of private communications or records.

Sec. 7. Constitutional Protections.

All actions under this order shall comply with the First Amendment, Fourth Amendment, due process, applicable privacy protections, and other constitutional and statutory requirements. No person shall be investigated solely because of religion, ethnicity, nationality, political viewpoint, criticism of the United States, or other constitutionally protected expression.

Sec. 8. Independent Investigative Judgment.

No officer or employee of the Executive Office of the President shall direct investigators to find criminal wrongdoing, bring a charge, or reach a predetermined conclusion. The Attorney General and responsible investigative officials shall retain independent authority over investigative and prosecutorial decisions assigned to them by law.

Sec. 9. Thirty-Day Presidential Assessment.

Within 30 days after receipt of the relevant materials, the Attorney General shall provide the President, to the extent permitted by law, an assessment stating whether the materials were authenticated, whether federal jurisdiction exists, whether the information indicates a credible national-security or public-safety threat, and whether the matter has been appropriately referred for further lawful action. Classified, intelligence-sensitive, grand-jury, or law-enforcement-sensitive information shall be protected as required by law.

Sec. 10. General Provisions.

- (a) Nothing in this order independently creates investigative, surveillance, detention, immigration, or prosecutorial authority.
- (b) Nothing in this order shall impair authority granted by law to an executive department or agency or its head.
- (c) This order shall be implemented consistent with applicable law and available appropriations.
- (d) This order creates no enforceable right or benefit against the United States or any person.
