

THE SKEWER: SCRIPT LAYOUT

The most effective way is to paste the link, timecodes, and dialogue all alongside each other. The example is a really useful way of laying everything out so that it's a) easy to 'get' on the page at a glance and, b) helpful to me when I come to make it, as the links and timecodes are in with the dialogue.

This piece was the Trump x Succession below from Series 9 (the finished version was slightly different on air, but that's my fault!).
