
Career Opportunities Notice

5 Sides Global Services, LLC will do a complete and detailed review of any and all resume's submitted for consideration of a position within the organization.

Our Operational Division requires specific skill sets that are consistent with individuals with the following backgrounds; current and former U.S. Army Special Forces qualified personnel, current and former U.S. Army Rangers, current and former Navy SEALs, current and former U.S.A.F. special operations personnel, current and former elite Law Enforcement personnel, former elite military personnel from other nations and Individuals with extensive Intelligence training and background, particularly HUMINT specialists.

If you are applying for a regional position, identified in our postings, language skills and operational experience are mandatory. If you don't meet these basic requirements, any resume' submitted will be reviewed through our initial review process and immediately rejected.

If your resume' is accepted for the next step in our interview process, you will be contacted by email with further instructions.

Thank you for your interest in 5 Sides Global Services, LLC.
