From the Mine to the Utility

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

Coal Energy magazine serves as a forum to communicate and promote the nation's professional coal producing and consuming communities.

Effectively reach a professional audience including members from the major coal associations- including American Coal Council, National Coal Transportation Association, American Coal Ash Association, National Mining Association (NMA), American Society of Reclamation Sciences (ASRS), FutureCoal and Alltricity Network.

Reach your target market with one ad, for one price.

Strengthen your relations with the decision makers who purchase your products and services. Symbolize your support for the industry's fastest growing e - journal.

AUDIENCE

Coal Energy's audience includes members from the associations listed above as well as other subscribers. It is geared towards coal production, transportation, and consumption.

Our audience includes, but is not limited to, mine operations supervisors, coal plant directors, rail car owners and manufacturers, rail carriers, barge carriers, utilities, power plant developers and engineers.

EDITORIAL FOCUS

Coal Energy profiles companies and individuals in the industry, covers the latest news and events, and analyzes trends in today's coal consumption.

We cover important legislature updates and follow national and state regulations in our industry.

We are proud to include safety recognitions, reclamation efforts and share updates on carbon capture and clean coal technology.

Once a year, Coal Energy features a memorial section dedicated to fallen coal miners who died in our industry the prior year.
