

OVERALL RISK RATING

ELEVATED

TRAVELER CONFIDENCE SCORE™

78/100

KEY RISKS

- Regional organized crime and violence outside controlled...
- Petty theft, taxi scams, ATM fraud, and opportunistic crime i...
- Road traffic accidents, especially after dark and outside...
- Hurricane-season and heavy-rain disruptions affecting...
- Food-, water-, and mosquito-borne illness risk

KEY OPPORTUNITIES

- Extensive cruise and resort infrastructure on both Caribbea...
- High-value cultural, culinary, beach, and eco-tourism...
- Frequent flights and strong connectivity from North America
- Established private hospitals in major cities and resort hubs
- Wide range of guided excursions suitable for families and...

WHAT'S CHANGED (30 DAYS)™

- Atlantic and eastern Pacific storm season pattern —...
- Seasonal mosquito activity — Moderate
- Persistent regional security variability — Elevated
- Holiday and peak-season congestion pattern — Moderate

HEALTH ALERTS

- Drink bottled or purified water; travelers' diarrhea remains a...
- Mosquito protection matters in coastal and tropical areas du...
- Heat and sun exposure are frequent shore-excursion hazards
- Private hospitals are best in major cities and resort hubs;...

SECURITY SNAPSHOT & EMERGENCY CONTACTS

- Risk is highly regional: tourist zones are generally safer than some inland and border areas
- Most common traveler threat is theft, especially in markets, beaches, nightlife, and transit hubs
- Use only authorized taxis, pre-booked transfers, or cruise-line excursions
- Avoid self-driving at night and limit independent movement outside established visitor areas
- Monitor weather and official state-specific advisory updates
- Local emergency numbers: 911 nationwide
- U.S. Embassy phone: +52 55 8526 2561 (verify at travel.state.gov)
- U.S. Embassy: Paseo de la Reforma 305, Colonia Cuauhtemoc, 06500 Ciudad de Mexico, CDMX, Mexico

CRUISE PASSENGER RISK INDEX™

75/100

Port Security

72

Medical Access

76

Health
Readiness

82

Transportation

74

Excursion Safety

70

PREPAREDNESS CHECKLIST

- Passport valid for the duration of travel and copies stored...
- Travel Insurance with trip interruption, overseas medical, an...
- Medical Evacuation Coverage with adequate limits for privat...
- STEP Enrollment or equivalent traveler registration for your...
- Emergency Contacts including ship contacts, insurer...
- Prescription Medications in original containers with extra...

INSURANCE SNAPSHOT

- Recommended policy should include at least robust...
- Medical treatment in private hospitals: High
- Medical evacuation from smaller ports or remote excursions...
- Trip interruption from hurricanes, flooding, or port changes:...
- Theft or loss of phones, passports, and valuables: Moderate

Prepared for Carnival Celebration · CDC sanitation 92/100 (CruiseAware sample data)