

The Spanish Pilgrimage Route You Must Walk Once in Your Lifetime!

When people talk about “the pilgrimage route,” they are usually referring to the path that leads to Santiago de Compostela, a city in northern Spain. This route is also known as the Way of St. James or the Camino de Santiago. According to legend, the remains of St. James, one of Jesus’s twelve apostles, are buried there. Since the Middle Ages, countless pilgrims have made their way on foot to Santiago each year as an expression of their faith. Today, it has evolved into a world-renowned hiking route that attracts hundreds of thousands of travelers annually.

The Camino Francés, the most famous and popular of all the Camino routes. Sarria to Santiago de Compostela, the Last 100km, the final stretch of the Camino Francés — and the most iconic section.

8 Days Sarria to Santiago de Compostela

May 23, 2027 – May 30, 2027

Day 1 SARRIA

Make your way to the hotel in Sarria in time to enjoy your first evening meal and get a good rest before you begin your Camino. If you are feeling energized before your walk, visit the town's main religious sites, Convento de la Magdalena and Iglesia Santa Marina de Sarria

Day 2 SARRIA PORTOMARIN (21.9 km)

Expect a peaceful walk in shady oak woods and pretty villages on quiet country roads. The village of Barbadelo (at an elevation of 580m) has a beautiful Romanesque church that is worth a visit. The next significant village is Ferreiros. When you arrive in Portomarin (an elevation of 550m) you can relax on one of the numerous terraces of the town's main plaza.

Day 3 PORTOMARIN PALAS DE REI (24.3km)

From the village, the Camino crosses the river Minho and climbs uphill. On your way, you'll be crossing Gonzar and passing the Romanesque Church of Santa María, Castromaior. The calm of the Galician Cemetery in Ligonde on a sunny day is a rest in itself. In Eirexe, the Romanesque portal of the church is a beautiful, featuring a sculpture of Daniel, as well as a statue of Santiago de Peregrino. You will then arrive in Palas de Rei (at an elevation of 565m).

Day 4 PALAS DE REI MELIDE (14.8km)

Today, the Camino continues slightly downhill, passing the village of Casanova and the charming village of Leboreiro. At Melide (a steady elevation of 454m), stop in one of the many restaurants to try some local specialties such as octopus a la gallega (boiled octopus served with olive oil, paprika and salt)

Day 5 MELIDE ARZUA (14.3 km)

This is the perfect start as the stroll quickly leaves Melide and heads off into quiet countryside, along forest track and through a few hamlets. At Boente de Ariba, you will pass by the ancient Church of Santiago before continuing through a forest track and reaching Catanada. You will then cross a few streams, and then you are at the last stretch to Arzua . Once in Arzua, you can then relax in the hotel.

Day 6 ARZUA RUA (17.9 km)

This shaded section of the Camino will pass through woods, along streams, and through sleepy villages. Take your time and visit the chapel of Santa Irena, with its unique statues of Santiago. The rest of the way to Rua-O Pino is on a quiet country road. Rua (at an elevation of 310m) is one of the less crowded stopping points before Santiago de Compostela.

Day 7 RUA SANTIAGO DE COMPOSTELA (20.3 km)

You're nearly there! The next stage will be Lavacolla, where pilgrims traditionally washed in the river before reaching Santiago de Compostela. Tall eucalyptus trees line your way to Monte del Gozo, or Mount of Joy. From here, you can see your goal – the Cathedral of Santiago! After a descent to the city you'll be able to witness this UNESCO World Heritage Site up-close. Marvel at the architecture and relish the wonderful atmosphere in this cultural and spiritual mecca and contemplate all you've experienced on your amazing journey.
