I. LAU Simulation Models (LAUSM)

A. General Information

The Outreach, Leadership, and Empowerment (OLE) department at LAU hosts the annual LAU Simulation Models (LAUSM) as part of its Youth Leadership Programs. These programs are Lebanon's oldest & largest simulation conferences, which are open for both High School and Middle School students from across the country. These programs are designed to spread a culture of leadership, civic engagement, and peace among the Lebanese youth.

Under the slogan "Empower Youth, Transform Governance", the Lebanese American University Simulation Models, proudly launches this year's four programs:

- 20th High School and 14th Middle School GC LAU Model United Nations (GC LAU MUN),
- 14th High School and 6th Middle School LAU Model Arab League (LAU MAL),
- 9th High School LAU Model European Union (LAU MEU),
- 5th LAU Model Good Governance (LAU MGG).

In each of these simulation models, delegates will learn extensively about their respective institutions and fully master the art of diplomatic finesse, which includes speech writing, public speaking, negotiation skills, and conflict resolution. All of these programs thus strive to prepare a generation of determined and resolute young minds to enact positive change in their communities.

B. Our Website

The LAU Youth Leadership Program website, youthleadership.lau.edu.lb, provides comprehensive details on our initiatives, including the LAU Simulation Models (LAUSM). Participants and their guardians have continuous access to the most up-to-date information on program details, schedules, application guidelines, new opportunities, and safety and security procedures, ensuring everyone stays informed and prepared.

II. LAUSM Brief Overview

A. Structure

Each of the four simulation models will follow a specific structure which consists of the following:

- 2 Training Sessions
- A Mock Conference
- A 2 day Final Conference

B. Our 4 Programs | What's in it for Delegates & Advisors

a. Global Classrooms LAU Model United Nations (GC LAU MUN)

The 20th High School and 14th Middle School Global Classrooms Model United Nations (GC LAU MUN) offers high school and middle school students the opportunity to simulate the proceedings of an actual United Nations conference. By participating in this program, students will get the chance to develop key interpersonal skills all the while debating prominent and cross-cutting world issues.

The Training Sessions will introduce students to the foundations of the United Nations, the flow of the procedure and debate of a typical UN conference, as well as important soft skills that will advance their professional development.

In the Final Conference, students will embody an ambassador of a certain member state partaking in a debate within a particular UN body or agency. At the end of the conference, the students will have come up with concrete resolutions for a particular world issue by applying all the knowledge they had acquired during the Training Sessions.

b. LAU Model Arab League (LAU MAL)

The 14th High School & 6th Middle School Model Arab League (LAU MAL) is a youth leadership program that offers high school students the opportunity to simulate the proceedings of an Arab League conference. By participating in this program, students learn, practice, and develop their leadership skills by discussing and exploring prominent social, political, and economic issues currently affecting the Arab world.

The Training Sessions will introduce students to the structure and history of the Arab League, the flow of the procedure and debate of an AL conference, as well as important soft skills that will advance their professional development.

In the Final Conference, students will represent member states, convening together in critical debates within different committees of the Arab League. By the end of the conference, the students will have attempted to solve problems and achieve consensus on important issues, devising tangible solutions to questions faced by Arab diplomats on a daily basis.

c. LAU Model European Union (LAU MEU)

The 9th High School Model European Union (LAU MEU) is an educational leadership program that offers high school students the opportunity to represent various European Union member states and prominent figures in a simulation of European Union institutions. By participating in this program, students will get to explore the European Union and its strategic and geographic potential as well as the dynamics between the EU Member States at the commercial, cultural, and social levels in order to understand the primordial nature of the European continent in world politics.

The Training Sessions will give students an overview of the European Union's history and structure, the flow of the procedure and debate of a typical EU conference, as well as important soft skills that will advance their professional development.

In the Final Conference, students will have the chance to represent a Member of the European Parliament, a Head of State, or a European minister. At the end of the conference, the students will have come up with policy recommendations for prominent issues facing the European Union.

d. LAU Model Good Governance (LAU MGG)

The 5th High School Model Good Governance (LAU MGG) aims to educate Lebanese high school students about the principles of good governance and their application in Lebanon as well as empower them to find innovative solutions to the most pressing economic, political, and social issues facing the country.

The Training Sessions will educate students about the country's situation and the state of governance in Lebanon, the flow of the procedure and debate that will occur in the Final Conference, as well as important soft skills that will enhance their professional development.

In the Final Conference, students will represent a certain international organization or non-governmental organization partaking in a debate within a specific Lebanese Ministry. At the end of the conference, students will have come up with sustainable reforms and policy recommendations to resolve a current issue in Lebanon.

4. Registration Modes

The registration process can vary between individual and delegation registrations:

- Delegation Registration: This involves a group of participants from the same school, or organization registering together as a team. Each member of the delegation represents the country or positions assigned to the delegation within the conference. The delegation is usually led by one or more advisors who assist and oversee the group.
- Individual Registration: This is when a single participant registers independently to attend the training sessions and conference. They represent a country, organization, or individual on their own and participate in the training sessions, debates, and activities without being part of a larger team from a specific institution.

5. Registration Capacities & Delegation Sizes

- Complete Delegation Registrations (Through school or institution)

Program	Delegates		Advisors
	High School	Middle School	Total (All levels)
MUN	Up to 16	Up to 10	Up to 4
MAL	Up to 16	Up to 10	Up to 4
MEU	Up to 16	N/A	Up to 4
MGG	Up to 16	N/A	Up to 4

- Delegates: This means that delegations can register up to 64 high school delegates & 20 middle school delegates across all four programs.

Since MUN & MAL are the only programs open for middle school students, the delegation capacity for each program is 26 (16 for high school and 10 for middle school).

- Advisors: All delegations are allowed to register a maximum of 4 advisors per program, NOT per level. This means that schools can register a total of up to 16 advisors across all four programs.

MS delegations do not qualify as an additional program and their advisor capacity stems from the original program.

For example, if a school is registered in MUN MS and HS, they can register a total of 4 MUN advisors (irrespective of their distribution across MS and HS programs). Similarly for all other programs.

- Individual Registrations (Not through school or institution)

Individual registrations are usually one person, and if multiple registrants happen to come from the same school or institution (although individually registering), they cannot exceed a total of 5 delegates from the same school or institution.

6. Registration Restrictions

- Student Advisors: All school students registering as advisors should have been previously part of LAUSM as delegates.
- Individual Registrations: For the maximum of 5 individually registered students from one school, a head delegate is to be assigned and the group is considered as a delegation from a programmatic and organizational perspective.
- Returning Delegates: A delegate who previously took part in LAUSM cannot register for a program they have already participated in under the same school level (High School or Middle School).

For example, if a delegate was part of MUN middle school, he/she can join MUN high school, however if a delegate already participated in MUN high school in Grade 10, he/she cannot participate as a delegate again for MUN high school in Grade 11. Yet, he/she can register for another program such as MAL, MEU or MGG.

- GCIMUN (New York): Participants in LAU's local MUN, MAL, MEU or MGG are welcome to register for the Global Classrooms International Model United Nations conference that LAUSM organizes in New York. It is also worth noting that the second-comers rule doesn't apply to this conference and previous GCIMUN participants can repeat the experience

IX. Participants' Attendance Policy

A. The Policy

Delegates will be required to attend all program sessions for which attendance is taken where required throughout a session, and that in order to:

- Obtain a certificate of participation,

- 2 Training Session

B. Absences | Force Majeure Cases Only

LAUSM cannot excuse any absence unless they are a result of a Force Majeure*.

If you believe that a specific absence case is a Force Majeure, you will be able to visit your Virtual Profile, and fill in an excuse form through the link provided there (after registration).

Please note that ONLY Force Majeure Cases (situations outside one's control) will be looked into for potential exemptions from the above GIVEN THAT:*

- An excuse form is filled before the end of the session day. (Any form filled after the end of day of the affected session will not be taken into consideration.)
- A Supporting Document is provided.
- A Detailed Explanation of the Force Majeure is provided.

b. Medical History & Conditions

We request medical conditions, history, and medication information from participants to ensure everyone's safety. This enables our Emergency Care Team (ECT) to provide quick, appropriate care in emergencies, preventing complications and tailoring responses to individual needs. It also helps identify risks for proactive management and timely intervention.

c. Emergency Contact Details

We request emergency contact details to quickly notify someone in case of an emergency. This ensures timely communication, necessary support, and peace of mind for both participants and organizers. This contact MUST be a Legal Guardian of the registered participant and not the registered school advisor.

B. Awards

All high school & middle school delegates who abide by the full attendance policy will have the chance to obtain a “Distinguished Performance Award” during the final conference for exceptional performance in different aspects.

An award-winning student can only benefit from one scholarship that he/she won at LAUSM. Scholarships cannot be summed up. In case a student has won more than one award (across multiple participation in different programs across the years), only the highest scholarship awarded is considered.

D. No Official WhatsApp Groups | WARNING!

There are no WhatsApp groups associated with the LAUSM program or OLE. The only lines of communication are through our official email address, our website, our official social media channels, or the delegation's assigned outreach coordinator.

Participants who choose to participate in any WhatsApp group or to provide their contact details to other program participants are engaging in this activity at their own will and OLE/LAUSM is not responsible for any exchange of information. All communication taking place on such groups or non-official social media platforms represent the participant and the people he/she chooses to engage in solely. LAUSM does not create nor endorse any WhatsApp groups or other than stated above social media pages at any point throughout the program.

XIII. Safety and Security Measures

All safety and security measures are continuously updated on our website at: <https://youthleadership.lau.edu.lb/lausm-%7C-safety-standards>

All plans will be discussed in detail during our first Advisors' Session on LAU campuses.

A. Campus Access

For safe campus access, only LAU students and LAUSM participants with valid ID cards are permitted entry. One-time visitors must receive pre-authorization from the team to ensure security. These measures are in place to maintain a controlled environment, ensuring the safety and well-being of everyone on campus.

Any person attempting to gain unauthorized campus access (access outside LAUSM hours, from non-entry designated gates, without an ID card, using a forged or falsely generated ID card, or using another participant's ID card) will be investigated.

It is the responsibility of the participant to be dropped at the designated campus gate and in case of having a designated driver to make sure that the driver abides by the safety rules and regulations provided to them. Any disrespect would impact the delegate/advisor participation.

B. Security

As we continuously ramp up our safety and security measures at LAUSM, ensuring the safety of our LAU campuses remains LAU's utmost priority.

Ample security & safety precautions and measures are in place, and additional measures will continue to be implemented should any situation call for it. The President's Cabinet at LAU continuously meets, and standard procedures have been taken to ensure operational continuity. LAU has also updated its emergency preparedness plan, and significantly increased readiness levels for continued safety and security.

Quick measures in case of lockdown, early dismissal or closure have been established specifically for our LAUSM programs.

- Lockdown

In case a lockdown is necessitated during LAUSM hours, LAUSM will promptly communicate through email and social media, along with updates on our website (<https://youthleadership.lau.edu.lb>). Students will remain in safe designated areas on our campuses until we officially confirm their safety. Once confirmed, we will initiate an "EEDP" (described below) and request that school advisors or the assigned guardian pick them up from our campuses. A verification process will be ensured at campus gates using our digital system of LAUSM databases and IDs.

- Early Dismissal (EEDP)

If we need to stop LASUM early due to an emergency, we will implement an "Emergency Early Dismissal Procedure" (EEDP). Notifications will be sent via email and social media, along with updates on our website (<https://youthleadership.lau.edu.lb>). We will also request school advisors or the designated guardian to pick delegates from campus.

This will be organized through pre-planned campus designated locations for every delegation (school), mapped out on every delegation's virtual profile. Assembly and dismissal will be through every individual delegation's designated and assigned spot only.

Understanding that you might not be available for an emergency early dismissal, we'll send a message requesting the contact details of an authorized person who can pick up your child if you're unavailable. Swift response to this message is crucial. A verification process will be ensured at campus gates using our digital system of LAUSM databases and IDs.

- Ministry Enforced Closure

In the event that the Minister of Education requests the closure of educational institutions, we will swiftly transition to online teaching and learning should the situation in the country allow for it, or we will announce the date for a rescheduled session. We will remain in continuous coordination with all participants.

C. Safety & Medical Attention

To ensure staff and participant comfort and preparedness for any unexpected situations, we implement stringent safety protocols.

- Each session begins with a safety video outlining key procedures, followed by a detailed briefing. The safety video is made available on our website - under Safety Protocols).
- Our comprehensive safety measures cover a range of scenarios, including fire, earthquake, and medical emergencies.
- Our initial registration phase requires the designation of an emergency contact person for every participant.
- LAUSM maintains an Emergency Care Team (ECT) comprising certified first responders specifically trained to handle medical emergencies. This dedicated team is equipped with the necessary skills and resources to provide immediate assistance as a first-response pending calling/arrival of Red Cross or Civil Defense teams (where deemed necessary).
- ECT will initiate a communication chain with advisors and guardians where necessary to ensure the adequate care is provided while necessary permissions are obtained.
- Medical evacuation where required (hospital transport) in cases of escalations is immediately coordinated to the nearest LAU Medical Center (LAUMC Rizk Hospital or LAUMC St. John's Hospital) or in severe cases (upon medical expert recommendation) to the closest available hospital.
- It is the responsibility of all participants (delegates and advisors) to have their medication with them during all on-campus events.
- Symptomatic advisors and delegates (fever, runny nose, coughing, sneezing, headaches, sore throat, fatigue, muscle aches, or shortness of breath) and/or persons exposed to any critical viruses including Covid-19 patients, should avoid coming to campus.

XIII. Miscellaneous

a. Campus Cafeteria

LAU's main campus cafeteria on both campuses, Beirut and Byblos, will be open throughout the program sessions and conferences. Delegates and Advisors are most welcome to capitalize on ordering food and beverage from the campus cafeteria to ensure there is no delay for orders during sessions.

It is the responsibility of all participants to make sure that cleanliness is maintained post lunch break whether it is at one of LAU's cafeterias or any on-campus space.

b. Dress Code

Dressing appropriately reflects a commitment to the program and helps foster a focused and respectful atmosphere.

- For LAUSM training sessions, students are expected to dress in smart or casual attire. This ensures a professional yet comfortable environment, suitable for interactive learning and group activities. Avoid overly casual clothing such as flip-flops, shorts, or graphic t-shirts.
- For the LAUSM mock and final conferences, students are required to dress in formal business attire. This includes suits, blazers, dress shirts, and professional footwear. Formal attire reflects the seriousness of the event and helps maintain a professional atmosphere, preparing students for real-world leadership scenarios

XIV. Role and Duties of Advisors, Delegates, & Head Delegates

As mentioned in the index at the beginning of this document, an advisor is "the delegation's official responsible for a particular LAUSM delegation". The advisor is the official point of contact between the delegation and LAUSM's Outreach Coordinator who will contact the Advisor to notify him/her of all process, updates, and follow ups they need to know about.

Kindly find below a list of an advisor's tasks.

- It is highly recommended to have an email account (Gmail account is preferable), to be familiar with mail and computer issues, and to check email for updates and reply to any emails necessary. Always check email Junk & Spam Folders.
- Filling in all necessary forms in a timely manner to ensure the delegation remains in line with all phases of the program.
- Keeping the students (especially the head delegate) updated with all the upcoming tasks and important dates, especially Training Sessions and Conference details..
- Attending all advisors' meetings during the Training Sessions where LAUSM team members will go through any program updates and important information as well as address any questions put forth..
- Attending advisors workshops/lectures (if any).for personal growth, professional development, ad delegation guidance techniques & tips
- Guiding delegates throughout LAU campuses and informing them of assigned classrooms, locations, countries/representatives and more.
- Respecting the deadlines with regard to registration forms and other important tasks.
- Informing students of attendance policy and therefore ensuring their attendance throughout all training sessions and presenting valid excuses if they should miss any sessions.
- Ensuring all students have read this Handbook in full, and especially section XV.
- The presence of the advisor is not mandatory during the training sessions; however, attending the advisors and Head delegates' meeting during these sessions is highly recommended as the Secretariat always seeks the advisors' feedback.
- Observing the training sessions to make sure that their students are benefiting from the training but, naturally, without any intervention during the holding of the sessions.

To ensure their comfort during the training sessions, advisors may be seated in the University's Cafeteria Beirut or Byblos campus.

In case the advisor is not present, the Head Delegate performs the tasks of the Advisor. The Head delegate is a current delegate that also holds the responsibility of leading the school delegation, speaking on behalf of the remaining students, and attending the Head delegate meetings (if any).
