To whom it may concern,

It is with great enthusiasm that I recommend Chris Latham for your recruiting needs. Chris was an exceptional recruiter for my company. He made my priority to hire his top priority to execute. As an Owner of a logistics company I know that having the right drivers is the lifeline of my business. Without drivers, I don't have a business. Chris not only understood that but he instinctively knew what to do to help me reach my recruiting goals.

Currently, recruiting for most employers can be difficult to navigate and get results but I felt confident that he was willing to go the extra mile and overcome any barrier that came our way. I quickly learned that he solves problems and takes his role to get results for his clients seriously. So much of my success was a result of having an exceptional recruiter on my team.

He is resourceful, communicative and takes feedback extremely well. Recruiting was certainly a collaborative effort and partnering with him to fulfill my recruiting needs was hands down one of the best decisions I made when launching my company.

I will forever be grateful for his expertise, professionalism and personal drive to exceed my recruiting expectations. He will always be the person I go to when I have recruiting needs.
