About the Community House

The Community House is a unique non-profit organization that has played a special role on Chicago's North Shore for more than a century. Today, this home away from home is more alive than ever, serving an increasing number of children and adults through life-changing programs, and offering opportunities to find friendship, belonging, and community spirit. As an independent 501(c)(3) nonprofit that receives no support from local taxes, the Community House relies on support from charitable contributions and fundraising events like The Home Tour.
