From the Pastor's Pen

Greetings!

The month of Thanksgiving is upon us. So much has happened in front of our eyes that we are not sure if we are able to process all of it. I'm hoping that during this month we can at least settle down and think about all that God has done in our lives. Some might feel there isn't much to rejoice about. The reality hits us hard at times, yet there are things we can be grateful to God for despite the hardships many of us are going through. I pray that you are able to share the love of Christ with families and friends, even with those who are far away.

We are in the stewardship season. It's the time for remembering that God placed us here for a purpose. All of our talents, spiritual gifts, experiences, and knowledge can be used for God's will. We are the laborers. God is sending us to the fields, we are in charge of building the church, and serving the community. I pray that Commitment Sunday will be an opportunity to say, "Here we are Lord."

I ask that we keep each other in prayer. If you feel anyone is in need of prayers or visitation, let the church know. With the temperatures dropping, we have to be vigil for our neighbors and everyone else. I ask that, with the heart of Christ, we look out for each other. I also ask that we pray for all of our church leaders and committee members as they are preparing for the church conference. The date is set for December 2nd.

While the mask mandate has not been lifted, the door of the church is open to everyone. Be safe. See you Sunday.

Blessings,

Pastor Alex Lee
