It's official! Registration for the 10th Annual Sturgeon Shuffle on Saturday, April 25, 2020, is now open! We are especially excited that both the 5K and 10K courses return to their origin on County Highway X just west of New London which will be closed to traffic during our events. The courses run parallel to the scenic Wolf River during the time of the year that historically sees the unique "running" of the sturgeon. Visit our website for more info and to register.
