

I was born in Austin, TX and raised in San Antonio.

An early automation/AI Tech bro—turned entrepreneur and Private Military Contractor.

Taking care of my elderly parents one day, the NEXT:

On the floor in a jail cell—Segregation unit.

A series of tragic events led to my spending the next two years locked-down in a brutal South Texas jail.

Innocent when I walked in, I was charged with 9 felonies, and handed an $840,000 bond for assaulting County Deputies in self-defense. Every unimaginable reality came along with it; plus the Sheriff ran the county and the Jail Lieutenant ran a Gladiator style Rec yard for his own control of the jail. I had to fight for my life.

Everyone believes jails have improved; become orderly and safer. Not in South Texas. It's not controlled chaos, just Chaos—A world no one ever sees.

After two long years, I was released with all nine felony charges dropped. No fines, no probation—Nothing.

In those two years I never had a court date or hearing; but I did lose my wife, my home, and both of my parents died in the nursing homes they were forced into.

I finally walked out of that gate; with no place to go, and no way to get there. But I didn't lose myself, or my 700 page Journal; now a series bible with a multi-series backend.

Down~South~Texas is visceral and real because, unfortunately for me, I lived it... ~ Keith

*Please donate to:

The National Alliance on Mental Illness. The incarcerated mentally ill need your help and NAMI supports programs and legislation to address this.

Your State's "Reform DFPS organizations. While there must be state agencies to protect children and the elderly from real abuse, they are currently being run by monsters Where everyone is assumed guilty on the whim or a hunch of an ill-trained and/or self-serving Investigator.