Looking Forward in Hope

By Interim Pastor Robb Kosky

Hope is a funny thing. Hope carries with it a presupposition of something that is, at the very least, not yet fulfilled if not downright disappointing or even tragic.

The hope I am living in right now is rooted in a disappointment.

But hope is also rooted in faith. It is rooted in the trust that God is with me in the midst of disappointment and that God will be with me in the future. This trust is, in part, based upon my experience that God has seen me through such situations in the past, and though I do not know how things will work out, I do not need to fear, because God and the people of God are with me.

I've been through my current disappointment and anxiety for the future four times before in my ministry. Something over 20 years ago, Jeanne decided to retire as the secretary at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. Twelve or 15 years later, Carol informed me that she was moving to another town and resigned from the same position. A few years later, Stephanie and her family moved to Arizona and she informed me that it would be too far to commute for a part-time job as our church secretary. (I managed to resign as the Pastor of St. Paul's before her successor, Megan, was able to resign.) In 2021, I was serving as the Interim Pastor at Lakeview Lutheran Church and Laura, who was working as our Office Administrator and studying as a part-time student at Wartburg Seminary announced that in the fall, her family would be moving closer to Dubuque and she would be attending the seminary full-time. (Laura was ordained as an ELCA Pastor earlier this year.)

Each time, I greeted the announcement with my own disappointment and increased anxiety. I did the same thing when Ann first informed me that she applied for a full-time position at the Muskego Public Library. (I was also secretly pleased when she did not get a call to interview over the next month – and then was dismayed when she did get that call.) In each case I was able to overcome my anxiety and fear and be happy and excited for the new possibilities for each person and her family, and I am genuinely pleased for Ann. I am also hopeful that God will be with us at North Cape as we look for a new Office Manager.

But there is something else about my disappointment in each of these resignations. It is that each of these women (as well as those who outlasted me in congregations) has supported and sustained me in my ministry and the ministry of the congregation they served. Through their goodwill, their friendship, their dedication, skill, and knowledge they have worked hard in support of the work of the Gospel and made my own work both better and more effective. And this has been most certainly true of Ann.

Thank you Ann, and May God's Blessings be with you in your new calling.

In Christ's Love and Grace,
Pastor Robb

Financial Updates

Our offerings for 2025 are still above our offerings for last year as are our expenses. In addition to this, we have gathered some $90,000 for our new sound system from memorials and donations from our members. Thank you to you all for your support of the work we share here at North Cape.

Offerings to congregations typically increase over the last quarter of the year as members consider if they have met their goals for their offerings to the church during the year and think about how they might be able to grow in their offerings in the coming year.

Thank you for taking time to review what you have given to North Cape this year. If you are not certain of what you have given, you may contact the church office or Laurel Rybka for that information.

If you would like to give your offering through our Simply Giving program you can find forms at the Welcome Center in the narthex. These forms can also be used if you wish to grow in your regular offering.

Intentional, planned, regular, and generous offerings will make all the difference for North Cape this year. According to our annual Ministry Plan, our expenses average nearly $6,300 per week.

Thank you.

Square Cash Online Giving

Use the convenient QR code to give to NCLC easily through your device! <https://form.jotform.com/73234080366150> We appreciate your ongoing financial support of the church. Note that online donations incur a 3.1% fee that is taken by the processing company prior to NCLC receiving your donation.

Simply Giving Program

Pick up a packet at the Welcome Center if you want to learn more about Simply Giving. This program allows you to set up automated offerings through your bank that pull your designated amount out of checking or savings on predetermined dates each month. Contact Laurel Rybka with questions.

Amazing Grays— Nov. 19th

Amazing Grays will meet on Wednesday, November 19th from 11-2pm at Raymond Community Church. NCLC will host again in December. All area seniors are invited to attend this free monthly luncheon and enjoy entertainment and fellowship too!

Thank You!

Thank you to Jerry Nelson for providing the flowers in the outside planters and the pots at the pavilion. The flowers always look amazing! Thank you to his staff and volunteers for keeping them watered all summer as well.

175th Anniversary Thank You's

Thank you to Robbyn Wilks and Alan Jasperson for all the hours they spent looking through all the old pictures and creating the history slideshow for the church's 175th Anniversary service.

The committee thanks Ann, our office manager, for all of her work on this special service with beautiful bulletins and all the extra work she did for us.

Thank you to Bob Benson for creating and attaching tags to the wooden crosses.

Thank you to Phyllis Metke and Barb Welch for planning the 175th anniversary service.

Thank you to Alan Jasperson for leading the memory sharing portion of the service.

A Special Thank You to Tim & Kim Slaasted

The crosses that were handed out during the 175th anniversary service were lovingly hand-crafted by Tim and Kim Slaasted from the pulpit that once stood at the front of our church. The pulpit, a place where the Word of God was faithfully proclaimed, now lives on in these crosses—symbols of grace, sacrifice, and redemption. Each cross carries the spirit of our congregation's journey, the prayers spoken, the sermons shared, and the lives touched. May they serve as a reminder of our shared faith, the enduring love of Jesus, and the beauty of transformation through service.

There are extra crosses still available for you to take home. Please stop by the Welcome Center while supplies last.

Lutheran World Relief

Thank you to the quilters for their hard work this past year. In September they sold quilts to help offset quilting supply costs and shipping costs, but the majority of funds will go toward mission outreach donations. They were able to donate 45 quilts to Lutheran World Relief this year.

Thanks to all who donated school supplies for school kits. We were able to donate 50 kits to Lutheran World Relief.

Thanks to Ginny and Joe Strueder for delivering the boxes of quilts and kits to the Ingathering in Racine in October, so our donations may be shared with others around the country and the world.

Legacy Quilters

The Legacy Quilters meet on the first and third Thursdays of the month from fall through spring. Join them in the church basement at 6pm to work on your own quilting or craft projects. Spend time working on your own projects with church friends!

WELCA

WELCA has a busy fall planned. Here are the events planned for the next couple of months.

We collected college student addresses in October, set out cards for members to sign on Oct. 26 and Nov. 2nd, and WELCA will mail the cards with a small gift to let students know we are thinking of them.

On Nov. 3rd we will hold the third annual fall pizza and craft night for all women of the church. At 6pm we will gather in the church basement for an evening of food and fun. We will provide pizza, salad, soda, dessert, and supplies for a surprise craft project. This will be a make and take project. We are asking for a $10 donation to help offset the cost. This is an adult only activity. It is a chance for you to meet other women in the church and have a fun evening.

Finally, we will be running the backpack fund raiser on Nov. 9th and Nov. 16th. In the past this fund raiser was run in December but we felt it would be better if we held it in November. The money from this fund raiser is used to support the educational needs of the children of El Chipilte, El Salvador. We ask that $20 be donated toward buying and filling the backpacks. You can donate $20 cash or make check payable to NCLC.
