"We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves; if we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord."

~Romans 14:7-8

There are moments in life when the veil between beginnings and endings grows thin, when joy and sorrow sit so close together that they almost share a heartbeat. I recently witnessed such a moment in a quiet room where an elderly woman, beloved by her family, was nearing the end of her life after a long journey with cancer. Around her gathered multiple generations of family members—each carrying memories, grief, gratitude, and love.

And among them toddled her greatgrandson, just two years old, full of wonder and discovery. His small hands reached for toys, for faces, for the world itself. His laughter bubbled up in the same space where tears were falling. His life was just beginning, stretching out with promise and possibility, even as hers was gently drawing to a close.

To hold these two realities in the same room is a sacred thing. It is a reminder that life and death are not opposites competing for space, but companions woven into the fabric of our existence. As people of faith, we know that God meets us in both. God breathes life into our beginnings and receives us tenderly in our endings. And in Christ, we learn that death does not have the final word—new life does.

In that room, the holiness was palpable. The woman's breathing as she peacefully slumbered and the child's delighted squeals formed a kind of liturgy—an embodied proclamation that God is present in every season. The family was not simply saying goodbye; they were bearing witness to the truth that love stretches across generations, across time, across the boundary between life and death.

This is the mystery we carry as followers of Jesus: resurrection is not only a future promise but a present reality. Even now, God is making all things new. Even now, hope rises in places where we expect only sorrow. Even now, life emerges in rooms where death seems to linger.

When we hold beginnings and endings together, we are reminded of who we are. We are people who trust that God accompanies us through every transition. We are people who believe that Christ stands with us in our grief and in our joy. We are people who proclaim—sometimes with words, sometimes simply with our presence—that love is stronger than death.

May we continue to honor these sacred moments when life and death meet. May we recognize God's gentle work in both. And may we live as witnesses to the resurrection hope that carries us, generation to generation, from our first breath to our final one, and into the life that never ends.

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Kelly

El Salvador Ministry

We are planning our next trip to El Salvador and your invited!

Our next delegation visit to El Salvador is planned for November 13-19, 2026. North Cape Lutheran Church along with many friends of El Salvador are developing plans for a delegation visit to our sister church in El Chipilte. The goals for our visit are as follows:

1. Walk with the people of El Salvador, learn about them, their faith and community needs
2. Support Pastor Martir's ministry
3. Worship and fellowship together
4. Engage in the culture and history of El Salvador

During the trip you will be able to see the beauty of this Latin American country, visit its capital city of San Salvador and engage in the rich culture. You will come back with a deeper faith knowing you received far more from the visit than you gave to it. We would like to see some youth from our church community join us this year. If they are not 18 years of age a parent or assigned guardian is required to be part of the trip.

Prayerfully consider joining our delegation. Maybe this is the right time in your life for a faith journey? If you are interested in learning more, please contact Mark or Tami Wittenberg (Home: 262-835-2503 Email: Witt4@msn.com) or consider attending the information meetings planned for Sept 3, 2026 7:00PM in the church library.

During the informational meetings you will learn more about El Salvador, the costs associated with travel and the agenda for this year's visit. The deadline for sign up is Sept. 7, 2026.

If you cannot join us, please consider supporting this special mission as follows. We are going to be collecting the items below starting in late September and going into early October as well as taking any cash donations. A collection box will be in the Narthex and cash donations can be placed in with your weekly giving and marked as El Salvador donation. We are going to use the cash to purchase shoes for the youth of the community. The items we are seeking this year are limited and only need specific amounts listed. An additional announcement will be provided in early September about this donation drive.

Items list:

- ☑ Band-Aids – Small boxes assorted - 50
- ☑ First aid kits Small - 50
- ☑ Tylenol small bottles - 50
- ☑ New or gently used Women's and youth sized t-shirts - 60
- ☑ Cash donations

Thank you for considering this information and supporting the El Salvador Mission.

Sincerely,
El Salvador Committee Team

This table compares our year-to-date financials (through July) for 2024, 2025 and 2026. Overall our financials have improved each year. July is traditionally a lean month in the church year. Likewise, our July 2026 numbers are down.

Square Cash Online Giving

Use the convenient QR code to give to NCLC easily through your device!
<https://form.jotform.com/73234080366150> We appreciate your ongoing financial support of the church. Note that online donations incur a 3.1% fee that is taken by the processing company prior to NCLC receiving your donation.

Lutherdale Thank You!

On July 20, NCLC made a generous donation of $971.80 to Lutherdale. We recently received a heartfelt thank-you for our support, which helps ensure that no child is turned away from camp because of financial hardship. Our donation helps children experience meaningful camp activities, build lifelong friendships, grow in faith, and discover where God is present in their everyday lives. We are grateful for the opportunity to support Lutherdale's ministry and help make camp accessible to every child who wants to attend.

We Energies—Easement Update

NCLC is temporarily allowing We Energies, a gas pipeline company and its contractors to use a roughly 25-foot-wide portion of the property for pipeline construction, equipment, access, and material storage. Hence, we have received a check of $7,027.08 in connection with the easement. The permission ends when the work and restoration are finished on or before December 31, 2027.

Pavilion Rental

On July 25, the Bruhn family rented the pavilion for a family reunion, followed by the Leach family, who rented it on August 12. We're delighted that both families were able to enjoy this beautiful facility and spend meaningful time with their loved ones.

We also sincerely thank them for their generous donations to the church. We hope more of our members will take advantage of this wonderful pavilion and all it has to offer for family gatherings and special occasions.

Upcoming Wedding

On October 10, 2026, a wedding will be held at our church, followed by a reception in the pavilion. The couple, Gasiorowski and Higgs, are not members of our church, but we are grateful that they have chosen NCLC as the place to celebrate their special day. We pray that God will bless them abundantly as they begin this new chapter of their lives together!

If you are looking for a beautiful venue for a wedding, shower, family reunion, or other special event, consider the North Cape Lutheran Church Pavilion! Contact the church office or Tom Jacobson at nclcpavilion@gmail.com to book. Check the pavilion policy on our website, and feel free to share our brochure in your community.

If you wish to have your child baptized or wish to get married at NCLC, please go to the church website northcapelutheran.org to find forms. Complete them and return them to the church office to set up dates. You may also contact the church office in person or through email at northcapelutheran@gmail.com.

Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. I am the vine; you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. — John 15:4-5
