PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Faithfulness produces fruitfulness. What is faithful in your life is fruitful in your life. There are faithful things in your life that may not be meant to be there. For example: addictions, negativity, chaos and the thought "I can't". When you change what is faithful in your life, you influence the fruitfulness in your life. The root of your warfare is the faithfulness in your life. What are you faithful to and what fruit are you producing?
