PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

If you plant a seed in a fertile mind, it can produce many new and inventive ideas with ease. If you plant a seed in an idle mind, it can become inactive or absence of any significant activity or ability to produce. If you allow someone to tell you something that is wrong and you repeat it, that is when "YOU" become the carrier of a bad seed. "Don't be a carrier of a bad seed."

Doing More With Lodge 64

On July 30, 2021, President Charlene Heard, Sis. Andrea Thomas, and Bro. Howard Billingslea participated with the "Community Service Teacher's Appreciation Event" at the Staples Store in Peachtree City, Ga. Teachers were shown appreciation with free gifts from Staples and Fulton County Lodge 64 for their persistence and patience with our children and their families especially since the 2020 pandemic. We salute all "Educators" and Thank You For All That You Do Seen and Unseen.

"THANK YOU "

On Tuesday, August 3, 2021 Lodge 64 participated in the "National Night Out" sponsored by College Park Police Department in front of their City Hall and Auditorium. The event was represented by College Park Police Department, Fulton County Sheriff's Office, Fulton County Marshal's Department, MARTA Police Department just to name a few. Although it rained on the day of the event, the comradery amongst everyone was witnessed on that day with the community, people of all ages with a different interaction with the men and women of various metro law enforcement agencies. Kudos to Bro. Ronnie Wyatt for his involvement with this event. The rain didn't stop this event from being a success. Thanks to the Event Chairperson-Bro. Jerome Hull & Co-Chairperson- Bro. Milton Weaver.

"Great Job!"
