President's Message

Do you have a gift or a talent that you are willing to share?

This is the season for giving. Do you have a gift or a talent that you feel is worthy of sharing? A gift is something that is given without any expectation of a return. A talent is a natural aptitude or skill. May this Holiday Season be a blessing to someone else with your gifts and talents. Wishing you and your family Happy Holidays and Prosperity in 2023.

"2022 Cops & Kids Christmas Event"

On Saturday, December 17, 2022, Lodge 64 sponsored our 2022 "Cops and Kids Christmas Event" at the Walmart Supercenter in Union City, GA. We had over hundred forty kids & families from various schools and agencies, such as: John Lewis Invictus Academy, Atlanta School: Maynard & Mays Clusters, Union City Parks and Recreation, Easter Seals of North Georgia, and the general public families that participated with this event. Everyone was excited to see Santa and the officers! This year the K&M Gaming Truck, Atlanta, GA was on site for the kids. The kids and families were very excited to shop with the Officers from their wish lists. We really appreciate everyone that came out to support and share in the joyful experience with the kids. A special thanks to the: Atlanta Public Schools Police Department, Fulton County Marshal's Department, Fulton County Police Department, Fulton County Sheriff's Office, College Park Police Department, East Point Police Department, City of South Fulton Police Department, and the Union City Police Department. A big shout out to Lodge 64 members, CJ Logistics (Fairburn & Union City), Solex Auto Inc. and other persons and businesses that supported our efforts. Thank you to the Lodge 64 members, Walmart staff and everyone in general that volunteered to ensure that this event was a success. A special thank you to the Walmart Supercenter, #155 Management: Nicole Hollis, store, Krystle Nelson, and Jason Dyer. We thank you and look forward to 2023!
