Personalized Ceremonies Available

Your love story deserves more than a standard script. While Florida law allows notaries to legally perform weddings for $30, I also offer optional enhancements to make your ceremony heartfelt and unforgettable:

- Custom Vow Writing Assistance – Thoughtfully written vows that reflect your unique connection and voice.
- Personalized Ceremony Script – From spiritual to simple, lighthearted to elegant — we'll craft a ceremony that feels like you.

These services are not included in the $30 legal officiation fee and are quoted separately. We'll collaborate ahead of time to shape your ceremony with care, creativity, and meaning.

Cancellation & No-Show Policy

Life happens — and I understand. But to honor your time and mine, the following policies apply:

- Cancellations with less than 24 hours' notice are non-refundable. This includes any travel, after-hours, or waiting time fees already reserved or incurred.
- If your appointment was made as a Rush / Same-Day Booking and is canceled or missed, you will still be responsible for a portion of the same-day service fee, as well as any applicable travel or preparation costs.

These terms are provided at the time of booking and included in your invoice or confirmation to ensure full transparency and fairness.

Important Notes

- I am not an attorney and cannot provide legal advice or explain documents.
- While I am fluent in Spanish, I am not authorized to legally translate documents.
- All signers must present a valid government-issued photo ID.
- All parties must be present, willing, and mentally competent to sign.
