Why Circular Economy.

CIRCULAR ECONOMY IS RESTORATIVE AND REGENERATIVE BY DESIGN, BASED ON THREE CORE PRINCIPLES:

- Design out waste and pollution
- Keep products and materials in use
- Regenerate natural systems.

This brave new system aims at “maintaining the value of products, materials and resources in the economy for as long as possible”.

Circular Economy constitutes a policy & market revolution in its infancy that will deeply shape major business trends and the regulatory framework at all levels for decades to come.

With timely exploitation, it can bring unique opportunities and sustainable growth for businesses across all key sectors, particularly to first movers.
