February 2019

Dear Friend,

Every first Friday from May to September, the quaint and historic riverfront town of Bristol Borough hosts First Fridays on the Delaware. These award-winning street festivals are organized by the Bristol Borough Business Association (BBBA) to highlight our main street district, our town and businesses. Now entering our 5th season, First Fridays have increased in participation, attendance, and popularity month by month, year by year.

The BBBA, along with a dedicated group of community volunteers and business persons who make up the First Friday Committee, strive to provide an interesting, culturally-rich, family-friendly experience for our visitors and lucrative interactions for our businesses, vendors, and supporters. In order to achieve this, we are seeking the support of businesses such as yourself. Bristol Borough's First Fridays are a wonderful way to highlight your business to an ever-widening audience. Please see attached for detailed support opportunities.

We thank you in advance for your consideration to support these community-strengthening, economically stimulating, award-winning events! We hope to see you on First Friday!

Sincerely,

Shea Cialella, Administrative Coordinator
First Friday Committee Chair
