Join us for a very special conversation with Lori Gottlieb, New York Times bestselling author of Maybe You Should Talk to Someone, nationally recognized journalist, and weekly “Dear Therapist” columnist for The Atlantic. In collaboration with participating libraries, this grant-funded virtual conversation for the California community will take place Wednesday, May 26 from 6:00 PM – 7:00 PM. Led by Lori Gottlieb, we will explore and discuss how we can make change in ourselves and our communities.

This conversation is part of the Book to Action 2021 initiative, which tackles important issues in the community and encourages reading, community discussion, and action. The Big Three themes that libraries and communities are focused on in 2021 are Equity, Sustainability, and Health.
