Bernkasteler Lay "Grand Ley"
2017 Riesling GG dry

S.A Prüm is a family-owned wine estate nestled on the banks of Germany's serene Mosel River, at the heart of the country's celebrated Mosel growing region. Here, the Prüm family has cultivated vines for over 200 years. The estate has been in the hands of Raimund Prüm, owner and winemaker, since 1971 when he assumed full management. Under his leadership, the property has become one of the region's most successful wineries, boasting an international reputation for the production of exquisite Rieslings.

PRODUCTION AREA:	This estate-bottled Riesling is produced from grapes grown in the Bernkasteler Lay single vineyard in Germany's Mosel region. In order to qualify as a G*roße Gewächs*, a vineyard must meet specific yield limits of 50hl/ha, sugar content of grapes must be at least Auslese level and the wine is subject to comparative taste-testing by the VDP. The association of premium producers in Germany.
