The Scotch World Journey

Thank you for taking a look at June 2022 Newsletter. When The Scotch World website started in March of 2020, it was meant to be a website sharing my passion for scotch with family and friends worldwide. Two years later, the website is visited by distilleries, businesses, enthusiasts, and the hospitality industry in 56 countries, over 520 cities, and on five continents.

We are often asked why we do not have advertising on our website, how we keep the website running, up to date, and full of information. We believe in keeping the website independent and non-commercial to provide unfiltered news and current event dates and whisky introductions without focusing on deadlines and content that we don't support. We will introduce distilleries, businesses, and many related topics but continue our journey focusing on the readers and enthusiasts. The best way to support The Scotch World is by visiting the website often, spending time on the individual pages, and sharing the website information with others.

Try before you Buy!

I am sure that you visited a store, looking for a specific Scotch you read or heard about. Next comes the sticker shock. You step to the left or right, hoping to find a more affordable bottle, settling with something you really do not want, because you are already there, and there are plenty of more affordable options. Try before you buy. There are plenty of bartenders who want to share their knowledge and passion, recommending, and even giving you a mini pour at no charge. Find what you like and then go to the shop.

My Scotch Recommendations that go a little deeper into the world of Scotch:

- Loch Lomond 15 Year
- Glendronach 12 and 15 Year
- Balvenie 12 Year Double Wood
- Macallan 12 Year Double Cask
- Shieldaig Speyside 12 Year
- Grangestone Bourbon Cask Finish
- Duncan Taylor Blended Scotch 18 Year

Whisky is a personal story!

The world of whisky is genuinely fascinating. Every pour and drop of the 'Water of Life' tells a new and different story. The location and moment will impact your experience. The whisky in your glass will create a personal story for the nose, palate, and finish. Two or three drops of water, an extra two to three minutes of air, and neat versus on the rocks, will allow you to enjoy the whisky even more. However, we all need to discover this on our own. I do not believe in the "price matters" concept of food and beverages. I have enjoyed a $8.00 and a $25.00 pour all in the same evening. Both were interesting and fascinating in their own way. Create and explore your personal story through whisk(e)y. Write it down and revisit the same selection a few months later. Most importantly, enjoy!

In conclusion – Enjoy every drop of the 'Water of Life'

I hope you enjoyed the June 2022 Newsletter and will continue with your journey in the world of scotch, whisk(e)y, and spirits. Share your experience with others, help them enjoy it, and tell people that it is ok to drink whatever they prefer, as long as they like it. Always Drink Responsibly! Don't Drink & Drive!
