and NAEOP – Northeast Area Conference
May 1-3, 2024

SPECIAL WORKSHOPS ~ WEDNESDAY, MAY 1, 2024

Choose two sessions or a combination from these four sessions for an additional $50.00.

12:30 pm – 2:00 pm 1st Session

2:15 pm – 3:45 pm 2nd Session

Advanced Excel & Excel Macros (Double Session), Connie Hyslop, Hyslop & Associates

This is a double session on advanced Excel features and an overview of macros. Advanced is a tricky term because everything is easy when you know how. Specific topics will include using absolute & mixed references in formulas, protecting a workbook from changes, working with conditional formatting, creating range names, using Vlookup & XLookup formulas in a database list and working with pivot tables to summarize & analyze data. Participants will also learn how macros can automate routine tasks. We will create & edit macros, add a macro button on the ribbon to run your routine with one click, or build a control panel to execute macros, launch a website and create links to files on a server.

Connie Hyslop, President of HYSLOP AND ASSOCIATES, Computer Training School has been teaching computers for over 30 years. She has trained thousands of computer users and specializes in providing quality training, in a friendly environment where each person receives individual attention. Connie now offers her classes as recorded videos with live support.

Being Adaptive in Order to Thrive in Our Ever-Changing World – HealthTrust/ComPsych

“Because we’ve always done it like that,” may not be the best answer to, “Why do we do the things we do?” In our ever-changing world, we are seeing shifts in our markets and economies, our cultural norms, our behaviors, and ourselves. Now is the time to thrive by learning how to be adaptive and to be consistently able to change yourself to accommodate and maximize the benefits of change.

2:15 pm – 3:45 pm 2nd Session

Balancing Work and Life ~ HealthTrust/ComPsych

Using the philosophy that “those who are happy at home perform better on the job,” this workshop was developed for those who feel burdened with too many responsibilities and without enough time for personal enjoyment. This workshop will help participants explore and define home responsibilities, identify career requirements, and prioritize leisure time. The resulting better balance will help achieve more in one’s career and at home.

“Mental Focus in the Workplace”

The hours in a day are finite yet the demands on your time seem limitless. It's hard to effectively get your work done when you're pulled in so many different directions, and COVID has made it even harder. But by understanding the ways your brain can work for or against you, you can train yourself to keep your brain in the game even in stressful circumstances. This workshop will show you how to improve and protect your mental focus.

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTIONS and PRESENTER BIO'S Annual NHAEOP Edith E. Hammond Conference and NAEOP – Northeast Area Conference May 1-3, 2024

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 2024 ~ SESSION 1 – 1:30 PM – 3:00 PM

D-I-G - Dream, Inspire, Grow ~ Teresa Himmelberger, CEOE, NAEOP President

As you have traveled through this thing called life, how many different dreams have you pursued? Did you have a bucket list of those dreams? What or who inspired you to have those dreams, and if you pursued those dreams, how did you get to a place or who did you meet along the way which led you to grow?

Let us explore our dreams and how we can be inspired and grow along the way!

Teresa Himmelberger, CEOE, 2023-24 NAEOP President

I am a mother of two grown adults, Brandy, 34 and Tyler, 27 and a grandmother of one beautiful girl, Freya (babycakes) who has my heart as much as my kids. We have two kitties, Ivan, and Luna, who keep us busy like toddlers. My wonderful, supportive husband of 14 years and I are living our best lives with our little family.

My career education started in 1996 as an office clerk in the Granite District Human Resources Department, then quickly transitioned into the Payroll Office where I have worked for 26 years.

I joined NAEOP in 2013 as an incoming local President of Granite Association of Educational Office Professionals and became the NAEOP Southwest Area Director a few years later. After serving in that position for four years, I progressed to serving as Vice President, President Elect, and now President.

Giving Effective Feedback in Personal or Work Situations ~ HealthTrust/ComPsych

Giving effective feedback is difficult. Most people avoid opportunities to give constructive feedback and give infrequent and often unhelpful positive feedback. This session addresses strategies on how to deliver effective feedback at work or at home. The training will offer multiple examples and provide participants with ample practice to learn how to give feedback that helps individuals improve performance.

Microsoft Office Pre-fillable ~ Connie Hyslop, Hyslop & Associates

Microsoft Word has a forms feature that enables you to create documents and tables to fill in the blanks. In this workshop, the attendee will learn how to protect a document and use the tab key to jump to the next form field. The presenter will demonstrate how this is used in letters & documents like contracts. We will also create forms using the table feature and automate the fill-ins using text fields, drop-down lists and check boxes.

Connie Hyslop, President of HYSLOP AND ASSOCIATES, has been teaching computers for over 20 years. She has trained thousands of computer users and specializes in providing quality training, in a friendly environment where each person receives individual attention.

Cybersecurity ~ Pamela McLeod, ACT Director of Cybersecurity

Did you know that a cyber-attack on a US School District typically costs between $50,000 and $1 million? That education is the most targeted sector for attacks? Student data privacy and cybersecurity have evolved so rapidly in the past 5 years, and in many ways, school offices are the gatekeepers for student information. Join Pam McLeod, ACT's Director of Cybersecurity, the former CISO in the Concord School District, and a NH leader in student data privacy, as she highlights the MOST important and EASY techniques, tools, and work habits you can use to protect sensitive student information. Your technology team will LOVE you for attending this session! These same techniques can also help you protect your own personal information, as well as that of your family! To submit questions or scenarios in advance, please email pam@mcleodmcleod.com .

Pam McLeod is an experienced public sector technology and education leader, beginning in higher education as an ocean mapping specialist at Maine Maritime Academy and UNH, followed by 19 years as an administrator in New Hampshire's public schools. Her public-school tenure includes 10 years at Alton Central School and 9 years in the Concord School District as Director of Technology and Chief Information Security Officer. Pam co-founded the NH CTO Council, a professional organization and state affiliate of CoSN, as well as the NH CTO Student Privacy Alliance, a grassroots, cooperative solution to meeting the requirements of NH's student data privacy law. NH's Alliance has signed data privacy agreements with 1,500 online software applications, securing data for more than 130,000 of NH's children across 80% of our districts at a cost of just over $1/student/year.

Pam holds a Bachelor's in Electrical Engineering from the University of Wyoming; a Master's in Engineering from Purdue; and a CAGS in Educational Leadership from SNHU. She is a certified NH digital learning specialist, the 2012 recipient of the NHSTE Technology Impact Award, and a CoSN Certified Education Technology Leader. Pam has been a school board member on the Alton (SAU #72) and Prospect Mountain High School.

JMA (SAU #301) boards for nearly 7 years, proudly leading efforts to consolidate SAU services across the 3 school districts in the two small towns of Alton and Barnstead, which together educate a total of about 1,350 students. She served on the board of directors of the NH School Boards' Association for 3 years.

Since June, Pam has been the Director of Cybersecurity for ACT, Inc., the education assessment company. She remains active in NH school issues through her school board service.

Pam lives on a mountain farm in Alton Bay with her husband Andy. They have two college-age sons.

PSP ~ What is in it for me? ~ Bonnie J. Miller, CEOE, Immediate Past NAEOP President

Learn why you should apply for the certification and how easy the application is to complete. Understand what the CEOE/CESE distinction is and how you can obtain yours. This session is meant to provide an overview of the program, ease of the application process and have fun while doing so!

Bonnie J. Miller has served in various board of director roles for both NAEOP and PAEOP (Pennsylvania Association of Educational Office Professionals), including 2 terms as President of PAEOP. She has enjoyed serving as chairperson on various NAEOP committees and is very passionate about the NAEOP Professional Standards Program.

She holds a degree in Business Management. She is completing her 37th year of employment at Pace School, where she is the Executive Assistant to the Chief Executive Officer.

Bonnie and her husband John celebrated their 36th wedding anniversary in April 2024. They have a daughter and twin boys. She immensely enjoys spending time with her children, reading, traveling, and relaxing at their family camp.

She is grateful to have the opportunity to serve NAEOP members and to provide professional development to office professionals across the nation. Bonnie appreciates the opportunity to be part of the New Hampshire Association of Educational Office Professionals conference.

Human Trafficking ~ Meg Chant, Program Director, NHCADSV

This workshop will provide an overview of the essentials of human trafficking -- including both the statutory elements of the crime and the dynamics of trafficking situations in the real world -- and explore the complexities involved in supporting trafficking victims. We will look at vulnerabilities and risk factors as well as indicators to be aware of when interacting with a potential victim. We will provide the audience with an understanding of current trends in NH and how professionals around the state are collaborating to combat and prevent trafficking and support New Hampshire victims.

Meg Chant is a Program Director at the New Hampshire Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence (NHCADSV). In this role, she serves as the director of the New Hampshire Human Trafficking Collaborative Task Force, providing support, collaboration, and coordination to task force partners in addressing human trafficking in New. Prior to joining the Coalition, Meg served as a criminal justice system advocate with the AmeriCorps Victim Assistance Program (AVAP). In this role, Meg supported victims of felonies during the offenders' incarceration/supervision, focusing in particular on the parole process.

THURSDAY, MAY 2, 2024 ~ SESSION 2 – 3:15 PM – 4:45 PM

General Session ~ “The Wizard of Us”

Educational Office Professionals play an incredibly important role in the lives of children, parents, and staff. The job is not an easy one and it's sometimes difficult to know if the contributions being made make a difference. As we travel together down a road that can sometimes be chilling, we'll use our hearts, heads, and a bit of courage to discover how we can (and do) make a difference for those around us. And don't be surprised when you learn just WHO is hiding behind the curtain!

Pam Stiles is a life-long educator, who served students and families for 44 years as a teacher, assistant principal, principal, assistant superintendent, and superintendent. During her tenure as a school administrator, the Alton Central School was named the 2019 NH Elementary School of the Year. In 2015, as Principal of the Chichester Central School, the school was recognized as a National Blue Ribbon School for Exemplary Performance in both reading and math for both the general and special education populations. In 2013, Pam was named the NH Elementary School Principal of the Year and was selected as a National Distinguished Principal. In 2019, she was chosen as the Administrator of the Year by the NH Educational Association of Office Professionals. As a national speaker, Pam has worked with teachers and administrators around the country on the topic of leadership. Pam currently teaches graduate education classes for Southern NH University, works for the state at the NH Council for Developmental Disabilities and mentors Principals for the NH Association of School Principals.

The Importance of Play ~ HealthTrust/ComPsych

Play is not only for kids – adults can benefit from it too! According to The American Psychological Association, “play” refers to activities that appear to be freely sought and pursued solely for the sake of individual or group enjoyment. You may be asking, why is this important? Think back to the last time you played a fun game with family or friends. You were likely focused on the game and how much fun you were having. You probably didn’t think about all the health benefits you were gaining, such as decreased stress and increased brain function. They were happening anyway!

Using Digital Photography in School Communications and Marketing ~ Christy Prosser

Introduction to Photography, including an overview of camera modes, image composition, and using imagery to tell your district's story through marketing, social media, and digital communications. Plus, discussion of school policies on images of students, copyright laws, rules of public areas and photography, and photography best practices.

Christy Prosser, a distinguished photojournalist, seamlessly weaves her passion for visual storytelling with a rich background in education and a fervor for global exploration. Over a span of 28 years, Prosser has not only left an indelible mark on education as a public-school educator but has also etched her visual narratives across the world, with over 1100 published images in renowned publications like The Wall Street Journal, Daily Mail United Kingdom, The Guardian, and The Times.

Prosser's lens, capturing the essence of diverse cultures and experiences, garnered particular acclaim during her coverage of momentous events such as the Queens State Funeral and the Kings Coronation in London as well as the 50th Running of the Iditarod in Alaska and the 2020 and 2024 Presidential Campaign coverage. Her photographs, featured prominently in these historic occasions, serve as powerful testaments to her ability to encapsulate the gravitas and beauty of historical and global events.

Beyond the pages of magazines and newspapers, Prosser's dedication to education shines through in her innovative teaching methods, earning her recognition and as an inspiring educator. Her impact extends far beyond the classroom, as her students are not only educated but inspired to view the world with a discerning eye.

A seasoned world traveler, Prosser has traversed 61 countries, each journey enriching her understanding of diverse cultures and influencing her captivating photographic work. Her experiences serve as a wellspring of inspiration, allowing her to capture the human experience in its myriad forms, even from the summit of Mt. Kilimanjaro on the documentary, 24 Hours Around the World: 12-12-12.

Prosser's role as a thought leader is highlighted through her engagements as a conference speaker and presenter in areas such as Technology, Photojournalism, AI, and School Safety. Her ability to seamlessly bridge academic insights with practical experience has positioned her as a sought-after speaker at global conferences.

In the realm of academia, Prosser's academic journey is as diverse as her career. Boasting degrees, certificates and course work from institutions like Harvard, University of Oxford, England, and Georgia College & State University. She continues to pursue intellectual endeavors currently at Yale and Miami University in Ohio. Her coursework at Johns Hopkins in Central Intelligence and at the University of Oxford in England, delving into Archaeology and the Psychology of Leadership, showcases her commitment to interdisciplinary knowledge and lifelong learning.

Christy Prosser's journey serves as a testament to the intersection of curiosity, education, and the art of visual storytelling. Whether capturing historical moments through her lens, shaping minds in the classroom, leading school districts or delving into the complexities of global events, she continues to inspire and contribute to the world in meaningful ways.

AI - Artificial Intelligence ~ Pamela McLeod, ACT Director of Cybersecurity

You've heard the hype around AI tools like ChatGPT, but what is AI and how can it help you work more efficiently in the school office, so that YOU can spend more time doing what you do best? In this presentation, join Pam McLeod, a veteran education technology leader and NH's 2012 technology leader of the year as she showcases AI tools that can benefit your work, as well as your personal life. This session will also address some of the common questions and concerns about AI and leave you with best practices and guidelines for using AI responsibly and safely. Hate technology? Perhaps AI can help you with the tasks that are most frustrating. Bring your phone preinstalled with Microsoft CoPilot, ChatGPT, or your favorite AI app, and come prepared to have FUN with this topic! Conflict Management ~ Nicole Armaganian, Risk Management Consultant, Primex<sup>3</sup>

This session will educate participants about how to proactively manage workplace conflict and provide participants with effective workplace conflict resolution strategies. Through lectures, discussion and interaction, participants will discover the correlation to increased organizational productivity and learn how to work through the obstacles that occur while trying to resolve conflict in the workplace.

Objectives:

- Establish the core competencies of conflict resolution and how to think strategically about conflict, rather than react to it blindly.
- Equip participants with the basic skills to mediate workplace conflict.

Nicole Armaganian joined Primex in 2018. She entered the Team as a Risk Management Consultant focusing on working with members to address their training, consulting, and risk management needs. Nicole holds industry designations such as Associate Risk Manager (ARM), Certified Playground Safety Inspector (CPSI), and Certified Workplace Mediator and Trainer in Conflict Management (CMT).

In addition, Nicole has initiated and presented at numerous programs related to leadership and is most proud of her work with developing the New England Women in Law Enforcement Leadership Training program series. Nicole is a 22-year veteran of law enforcement. She retired from the New Hampshire State Police as a Lieutenant serving as Troop Commander of Troop G.

FRIDAY, MAY 3, 2024 ~ SESSION 4 – 10:45 AM – 12:15 PM

Audit Readiness ~ Sheryl Pratt, CPA, Plodzik and Sanderson

Plodzik and Sanderson, Professional Association, has substantial experience in performing compliance audits pursuant to Yellow Book standards, including Single Audits prescribed by Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards (Uniform Guidance). This includes audits for towns, cities, school districts, school administrative units, village districts, and precincts. Our staff is trained in Yellow Book requirements and each member meets the Continuing Professional Education standards as outlined in the Government Auditing Standards.

The two objectives of a Single Audit are:

1. To render an opinion on the entity's financial statements and the reporting on the schedule of expenditures of federal awards in relation to those financial statements, and
2. To perform a compliance audit of federal awards expended during the fiscal year.

The financial statement audit is performed in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in the Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. The audit results in the auditor reporting on the entity's financial statements as well as any deficiencies in internal controls over financial reporting that were identified during testing. Tests are also performed on the entity's compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements, where noncompliance with these provisions could have a direct and material effect on the determination of the financial statement amounts and any instances of noncompliance or other matters are reported as required under Government Auditing Standards.

Sheryl A. Pratt, CPA, Director/Shareholder

Sheryl A. Pratt joined Plodzik & Sanderson, Professional Association in 1991 as a governmental auditor and has been a Director and Officer of the firm since 2005. During that time, she has performed audits of the financial statements of towns, cities, school districts, school administrative units, village districts, water precincts, federal grant programs, and special governmental entities.

Ms. Pratt received her bachelor's degree in accounting from Southern New Hampshire University. She also received a bachelor's degree in business administration with a minor in Psychology from Plymouth State University. She is a licensed Certified Public Accountant in the States of New Hampshire and Vermont.

Transitions Moving Forward ~ Katherine Reichley, CEOE, Northeast Area Director

Everyone experiences transitions regularly in their work, family, and all other aspects of life. Hardly a day goes by that is just like the one before it, especially in the school setting. Change is presented by our environment, our associates, and ourselves and impacts us in a range of positive to negative ways. We will learn strategies to help us transition more gracefully despite the source of changes. Learning the steps humans go through during typical transitions enables us to be better prepared to come through changes by growing rather than collapsing. We will also touch on ways to support others in transition.

Katherine Reichley, CEOE, is the Academic Assessment and Accreditation Specialist at Otterbein University in Westerville, Ohio, where she has worked for 35 years in August. She serves as the NAEOP Northeast Area Director and completing her second term at the end of July 2024. As part of that role, she has been the Public Relations Committee Chairman for 2023-24. Although not an expert on Transitions, she has experienced her share over the years. Some of them will be used as examples in her session. Outside of work, Katherine leads the sewing group at her church, serves on the Mission and Outreach Committee, and likes to knit and make jam. She lives in Somerset, Ohio, with her husband, Tim, and newest dog, 4-year-old Sugar. Their son, Dominic, is married with one child, Hudson, who turns two on July 1 which is also Dominic's birthday.
