Thank you so much to the people who were able to come and work to clean up the church grounds on our work day! We accomplished a lot of different tasks here at the church, and things look amazing! Not everyone that worked is in the picture, but know that you are appreciated very much!

We will be decorating the church for the Christmas season on Sunday, November 23rd, right after our Thanksgiving Meal. We welcome ALL who can help. The more people we have, the less time it will take.
