FAYETTE COUNTY SEEKING CENSUS COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Uniontown, PA – Fayette County officials have already begun laying the groundwork for a successful 2020 Census and are encouraging citizens to get involved.

To form the Fayette County Complete Count Committee, commissioners are still seeking volunteers from across the county to ensure all goals are met when the Census is conducted April 1, 2020.

Ideal committee candidates will be elected officials from Fayette's 42 municipalities; members of community organizations or faith-based groups; and education, business, social service, health and other professionals.

However, all residents are welcome to submit letters of interest by Feb. 1 to Joe Ambrose at jambrose@fayettepa.org.

As mandated by the U.S. Constitution, the nationwide Census, an official recording of the country's population, is conducted via a distributed survey form every 10 years.

The Census allows federal, state and local governments to conduct fair redistricting, provides statistical support for grant applications, helps communities plan for future needs and more.

For more information on the Complete Count Committee, call 724-430-1211.
