FIREWORKS OVER FAYETTE RETURNS SUNDAY

Uniontown, PA – The Fayette Chamber of Commerce will host its annual Fireworks Over Fayette Independence Day Celebration June 30 at the Uniontown Mall.

This year's festivities take place from 6 to 10 p.m. on the mall grounds on West Main Street.

The free celebration will feature a live performance by Abacus Jones at 7 p.m., food for purchase, family games and - the grand finale - a Keystone Fireworks display at dusk to kick off the week's July 4 festivities.

All are invited to attend and encouraged to bring chairs to be comfortable for the best views from the mall parking lot.

Primarily sponsored by 84 Lumber, the Uniontown Mall and Faith Assembly of God church, the evening will also feature inflatables for kids, face painting by Chasing Butterflies, plenty of prizes and other activities.

The Fayette Chamber will be selling hot dogs, sno-cones, beverages and other refreshments. Additional vendors include Auntie Anne's Gourmet Pretzels, Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Laurel Region, Hometown Staffing Services, Planet Fitness, Somerset Trust Company and more.

Local radio stations WMBS and KVE will host live broadcasts on site throughout the evening.

Additional sponsors include Frick Tri-County Federal Credit Union, KVE 103.1 FM, Uniontown Hospital, WMBS Radio 590 AM/101.1 FM, Mount Macrina Manor, Stewart Collision Service, Fay-Penn Economic Development Council, First National Bank of PA, Hometown Staffing Services, Sheetz, AG Amedisys Home Care, Best Line Equipment, Parsons Insurance Services LLC and Sisters of St. Basil the Great.

Chamber Executive Director Muriel Nuttall said the chamber has proudly hosted the event for nearly 30 years.

"Fireworks Over Fayette has been bringing generations of families for decades. It's a great way to not only celebrate our patriotism, but foster the strong sense of community and camaraderie you'll find here in Fayette County," Nuttall said. "We hope everyone will join us this Sunday for a fantastic evening full of food, fun and fireworks."
