

QUALITY POLICY

Prothane Inc. will consistently provide high quality custom polyurethane products and outstanding customer services to its clients, and maintain its reputation of excellence in the marketplace by:

- meeting or exceeding the requirements and expectations of its customers
- flawlessly executing all processes in the organization
- continually improving the effectiveness and efficiency of the quality management system and its processes
- constantly enhancing customer satisfaction in all aspects of business
- always adhering to agreed delivery schedule
- creating a value to its customers by providing the optimal balance of quality and competitive price
- building the quality culture in the organization that will enable all employees to perform their job right all the time
- complying with applicable statutory and regulatory requirements.

Sean McTear

President