CAMBRIDGE, Mass. – Thirty-seven conference all-stars representing all 16 Division I football playing schools in New England FBS and FCS have been selected to the 2023 New England Football Writers Association All-New England team. The team honors the best Division I players by position in New England from the 2023 season.

The Ivy League leads the team with a dozen players selected. The Coastal Athletic Association had seven picks. The Northeast Conference and New England independent schools are represented by five players. The Patriot League tallied four selections, with two picks each for the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Big South/Ohio Valley Conference.

Ivy League co-champion Dartmouth College and Patriot League co-champion Holy Cross lead the team with four picks each. Ivy League co-champions Harvard and Yale have three picks apiece as do UConn, the University of New Hampshire and the University of Rhode Island. Checking in with two honorees each are Boston College, Brown, Bryant, Merrimack and UMass. One player each was selected from Central Connecticut State, the University of Maine, Sacred Heart, and Stonehill.

The team will be honored at the New England Football Writers Captains and Awards Banquet on Thursday, December 7, at the Sheraton Framingham Hotel and Conference Center. Reservations must be made no later than 5:00PM, Friday, December 1, and may be made at <https://newenglandfootballwriters.com/captains-%26-awards-banquet>. Tickets are $70/person. Reservations are made on-line only and are non-refundable.
