

New England Football Writers Names Division II/III All New England Team

Bridgewater, Mass. – Twenty-nine conference all-stars representing 19 schools from the six New England Division II and III football playing conferences have been selected to the 2021 New England Football Writers Association All-New England team. The team, selected by a committee of representatives from the six conferences, honors the best Division II and III players by position in New England from the 2021 season.

The Division II Northeast-10 and Division III Commonwealth Coast Conference lead the team with six players each. The Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference had five selections with the Eastern Collegiate Football Conference, the New England Small College Athletic Conference and the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference having four honorees each.

MASCAC champion Framingham State University and NEWMAC titlist Springfield College had three selections with Assumption University, Bentley University, Castleton University, Salve Regina University, Commonwealth Coast Conference co-champion Western New England University and New England Small Conference Athletic Conference titlist Williams College having two picks each. Additional players selected are from Eastern Collegiate Football Conference champion Anna Maria College, Bridgewater State University, Dean College, Commonwealth Coast Conference co-champion Endicott College, Husson University, MIT, Northeast-10 Champion the University of New Haven, Stonehill College, Trinity College, Wesleyan University and Worcester State University.

The team will be honored at the New England Football Writers Captains and Awards Banquet on Thursday, December 9, at the Sheraton Framingham Hotel and Conference Center. Reservations must be made no later than Friday, December 3, and may be made at <https://newenglandfootballwriters.com/captains-%26-awards-banquet>. Tickets are $60/person and reservations are by credit card only.
