CAMBRIDGE, Mass. – Thirty-one conference all-stars representing 19 schools from the six New England Division II and III football playing conferences have been selected to the 2023 New England Football Writers Association All-New England team. The team, selected by a committee of representatives from the six conferences, honors the best Division II and III players by position in New England from the 2023 season.

The Division II Northeast-10 leads the team with seven players selected. The Commonwealth Coast Conference had six picks. The Massachusetts State Collegiate Athletic Conference, the New England Small College Athletic Conference and the New England Women's & Men's Athletic Conference had five each. The Eastern Collegiate Football Conference tallied three selections.

NEWMAC champion Springfield College, Northeast-10 titlist University of New Haven, CCC winner Endicott College, NESAC Co-champion Trinity College and Anna Maria College had three selections each. Bentley University and Framingham State University each had two picks. Additional players selected are from Assumption College, Bowdoin College, Bridgewater State University, Curry College, Husson University, Middlebury College, Salve Regina University, Southern Connecticut State University, Tufts University, UMass Dartmouth, the United States Coast Guard Academy and Western Connecticut State University.

The team will be honored at the New England Football Writers Captains and Awards Banquet on Thursday, December 7, at the Sheraton Framingham Hotel and Conference Center. Reservations must be made no later than Friday, December 1, and may be made at <https://newenglandfootballwriters.com/captains-%26-awards-banquet>. Tickets are $70/person. Reservations are made on-line only and are non-refundable.
