CAMBRIDGE, Mass. – Thirty-five conference and independent all-stars representing 15 Division I football playing schools in New England FBS and FCS have been selected to the 2025 New England Football Writers Association All-New England team. The team honors the best Division I players by position in New England from the 2025 season.

The Ivy League leads the team with twelve players selected. The Northeast Conference had eight selections followed by the Coastal Athletic Association with six picks. There were also six picks for New England Independent schools. The Atlantic Coast Conference was represented by three players. The Patriot league rounded out the total with one.

Ivy League co-champion Yale University leads team with six selections. Northeast Conference champion Central Connecticut State has four. Boston College, UConn, Ivy co-champion Harvard and Dartmouth placed three players on the team. Checking in with two honorees each are Maine, UMass, New Hampshire and Rhode Island. One player each was selected from Bryant, Holy Cross, Sacred Heart, and Stonehill.

The team will be honored at the New England Football Writers Captains and Awards Banquet on Thursday, December 11, at the Sheraton Framingham (Mass.) Hotel and Conference Center. Reservations must be made no later than 4:00PM, Friday, December 5, and may be made at <https://newenglandfootballwriters.com/captains-%26-awards-banquet>. Tickets are $75/person. Reservations are made on-line only and are non-refundable.
