Jesus-Only

"...and so worship God acceptably... (Heb 12:29)

Memory verse: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you" (Mt. 6:33).

King Solomon had it right. The richest (and wisest) man who ever lived – he had it all. After all the chasing and striving (600 wives and immeasurable wealth), what was his end-of-life conclusion? "Vanity, vanity (breath, vapor), all is vanity" (Eccl. 1:2). In the "autumn" of my life, I have become increasingly aware of the empty, false gods I have chased after and bowed down to. These "teachers of lies" offered one thing – emptiness (Hab. 2:18).

The first to be called were fishermen (Simon Peter, Andrew, James, and John). By asking them to leave their nets Jesus was saying – Will you trust me? Will you leave your security and identity in this life – for Me? He's asking you and me the same question: Will you worship Me when others disapprove and/or there's no earthly thing to gain? Will you worship Me when the road is long, lonely, and weary, and the sacrifice is great? This is the call of the Christ-follower: To leave our "nets," count the cost, and follow Him (Mt. 4:19). Will I worship Jesus-only? All else is vanity.

Prayer for today: Lord, show me what (and who) I have placed before You. Help me to "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness.." Convict me of anyone or anything that has come before worshiping you first, worshiping you only. Teach me what is acceptable worship as unto You. Forgive me for seeking after those things that are empty, fleeting, and self-focused – my false gods have grieved your heart (Heb. 12:29b). In Jesus' Name, Amen.
