The longing for a simple life filled with love, faith, and family can be heard in each of these songs written by Timothy Scott Williams with his wife and co-writer Sarah Williams. “Down Below” speaks to a coalminer’s desire for a better life for his children and was a 2019 IBMA Songwriter Showcase selection. Caldwell County favorite Patrick Crouch lends his voice, 40-year love story, and writing talent to “The Way It’s Gonna Be” in addition to producing and providing all of the instrumentation on the first four tracks of the CD. Thomm Jutz produced the ode to home and home-cooking “Mama’s Table” that takes us further south to Louisiana. Sweet without being overly sentimental, listeners will relate to these stories whether they actually grew up “By the Railroad Track” or are just “Dreaming Small” for the future.
