Summer Recap: Summer is coming to an end and my what a busy one it has been! Steve and I have had the privilege of traveling to many areas to sing and preach at different camp meetings and revivals. It has been such a joy to be a part of these meetings and we are so thankful for the open doors and fellowship we have had with old friends and making some new ones along the way! We have many more services already booked for the fall and are excited for what God has in store! Please keep us in your prayers as we continue traveling and preaching the Gospel. Our mission trip is coming up quickly, and we are working hard on getting things together to take with us for the missionaries and the kids! Thank you to all who have already sent in mission bags, kitchen items and funds!
