

Media and Marketing Volunteers

Western Pride Football Club is a community-focused club which represents the growing Greater Ipswich and Western Corridor of South East Queensland regions in the national second-tier FQPL and NPLW competitions.

Our club comprises of male and female teams from U13 to seniors, plus Skills Acquisition and Development Programs (SAP/SDP) starting at U9s.

Our football club is looking for passionate media, marketing, graphic design, PR and journalism volunteers to assist with our clubs match-day media and marketing efforts.

Main tasks will involve:

- Writing match reports and feature articles
- Assist with the creation of social media content
- Assist with game-day media operation for our senior FQPL team as required by Football Queensland
- Assisting with sponsorship initiatives and activations
- Graphic design for web and print
- Video editing (desirable)
- Other marketing and media-related tasks that may arise

Some work during the week may be required with most home games take place on Saturdays at our home at Briggs Road Sporting Complex.

A current Blue Card (Working with Children Check) is mandatory.

Applications can be sent directly to David Reid, Western Pride's Media Manager via media@westernpridefc.com.au. Please include a current CV and Cover Letter.

OUR PARTNERS

