

Where in the World is Carmen Sandiego? Google Earth's "Kremlin Caper"

Your Mission

You and a partner will solve one of the greatest mysteries of all time. You and Carmen Sandiego are looking to find Paper Star, a villain that stole the keys to the Kremlin.

Gameplay

- 1) Pick a partner.
- 2) One of you will load the game into Google Earth (search for "Google Earth Kremlin Caper" or look under "Games" once you're in Google Earth).
- 3) The other person will keep his/her/their computer available to search for information such as country flags, currency, languages, a world map, and famous buildings.
- 4) If you don't have two computers, open two tabs in your browser.
- 5) Together, you will investigate, follow clues, and track down Paper Star around the globe.
- 6) Make sure to use the map on the back of this worksheet to track your adventure:
  - a. Create a symbol for where you started (example: a star).
  - b. Create a symbol for your flights or travels (example: a dotted line).
  - c. Color in the countries that were correct choices (example: green) and the countries that were mistakes (example: red). You may need an atlas.
  - d. Create a symbol for where you end the game (example: fireworks or a handcuff).
  - e. Draw and label a legend on the map to show your use of symbols.
- 7) Get to it! There is no time to waste!

What Did You Learn?

- 1) What is the Kremlin? _____
- 2) Where is the Kremlin located? _____
- 3) What are two new countries that you visited?
  - a. _____
  - b. _____
- 4) What are two new facts about the world that you learned?
  - a. _____
  - b. _____

Glossary

Caper - A goofy adventure often involving dangerous, illegal or questionable actions.

Carmen Sandiego - Your friend and assistant in tracking down Paper Star.

Kremlin - Like the White House in the USA, this is where the Russian president lives.

Gumshoe – A detective

Paper Star - The villain who stole the keys to the Kremlin.

LEGEND

- Where we caught Paper Star