

To select the best partner possible, make sure you ask your new trailer lessor these questions

Question to ask your potential trailer lessor	Rapidride's Answer	Other Vendor Answers
What trailer selection do you offer and what does your availability look like?	Rapidride offers its customers a diverse and extensive fleet of dry vans, reefers, flatbeds, chassis and specialized semi-trailers of various ages to support different applications.
How flexible are you to accommodate my unique requirements or make contract adjustments?	Rapidride strives to tailor its solutions to meet the unique needs of each customer, providing flexibility and speedy support.
Do your trailers come with the latest trailer technology?	Rapidride trailers are equipped with cutting-edge trailer tracking technology, including real-time GPS tracking with geofencing, cargo sensing for identifying empty trailers without yard checks and reefers with remote-controlled refrigeration monitoring.
Do your reefer trailers include reefer telematics?	Rapidride reefers, or refrigerated vans, include advanced technology to help you maintain control of your cold-chain operations. That includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✔ Real-time temperature monitoring and two-way remote controls ✔ Air chutes to eliminate hot spots ✔ 26-watt weatherproof solar panel to extend battery life
Do your over-the-road (OTR) trailers include air-ride suspension?	Rapidride trailers include air-ride suspension to increase load versatility, protect sensitive cargo, minimize trailer wear, and provide the best driving experience
How will I be able to access my trailer tracking and billing information with you?	Rapidride's web-based client dashboard offers easy access to key account information—from billing and insurance retails to real-time trailer tracking, and loss damage waiver (LDW) service option with a quick claims process.	