You continue to carry the same 'water' as did and still being carried by former and current directors, Just more hair splitting and situational polices established by desires of the board, none based on any laws. This reminds of those horrid day of professional Roberts Rules meetings.

I blame Greg Wall for most of this and I know was, any may still advising certain board members. A bar complaint was made about some of this behavior he owns. Anyone with a nose can see why Berg worked so hard to dirty up Director Daily. Wall just can't get over his loss. I may be off topic but the Bar did respond to the complaint and told Wall to essentially knock it off. I know this is a bit off the beam, but I think it is time to get it more embedded in the 'record'.

This is all about intent, Tim. This is the same sorry junk that Berg pushes about what it says or doesn't say therefore the board can do as the please. Let's just have it out now. Tell me I can't speak and we will go from there.

Sincerely,
David

Hi Dave,

Thank you for following the established process for public comment. As you know we don't limit the number of people nor the amount of total time for public comment other than the three minute limit. I agree with the RCW you have shared, however it doesn't address public comment, just public attendance. As I mentioned last meeting, I was not clear on your email if you were sending for response from the board, sharing with the board and not speaking, or wanting to speak at the meeting.

Thank you for signing up to speak. I appreciate the communication and we will see you tonight.

Tim

Robbie,

Thanks for putting this request 'on the record'. With all due respect, adding/sharing/stating any topic I wish to orate on is not required under and official (see other than this boards tacit policy) rule, ordinance, statute revised code as a condition to speak at any school board meeting.

The current pre-registration policy is also not required, by law or statute. Out of courtesy I did inform all directors and the superintendent of my topic(s) though. It seems to me this might be of interest to our press should I be denied the opportunity to speak. Being skipped last time due to oversight of the RCW that controls notice of who I am or why I want to speak should be noted here. Also, since the board blocks out onl 30 minutes of pubic comment time this sure seems like a big non issue nothing burger to me.

Sincerely,
Dave K.

The screenshot shows the Washington State Legislature website. At the top, there is a green navigation bar with the text "WASHINGTON STATE LEGISLATURE" and a search icon. Below the navigation bar, the breadcrumb trail reads "RCWs > Title 42 > Chapter 42.30 > Section 42.30.040". To the right of the breadcrumb trail is a "Print" button. Below the breadcrumb trail, there are navigation links: "42.30.035 << 42.30.040 >> 42.30.050". The main heading is "RCW 42.30.040". Below the heading is the text "Conditions to attendance not to be required." followed by a paragraph: "A member of the public shall not be required, as a condition to attendance at a meeting of a governing body, to register his or her name and other information, to complete a questionnaire, or otherwise to fulfill any condition precedent to his or her attendance." At the bottom of the screenshot, there is a citation: "[ 2012 c 117 § 124; 1971 ex.s. c 250 § 4.]".
