

PUNU CREATIVE INDUSTRIES

Art-Culture-Connection

Prospectus

PUNU CREATIVE INDUSTRIES

Patrick Ikaringanyi Ferguson is a proud Aboriginal Artist and Community Leader who is based in Adelaide South Australia.

Patrick is a descendant of the Yawarrawarrka People, and the Pitjantjatjara/Adnyamathanha language groups and maintains his connection to his culture and community through his carvings and the work he does through Punu Creative Industries.

For the last 20 years Patrick has sourced timber and materials from his homelands and carved these materials into remarkable pieces including Boomerangs, Spears, Shields, Necklaces, Coolamon and specific commissioned pieces.

His works have been presented in multiple forums including Tennis Australia, Australian Football League, various exhibitions and installations and cultural exchanges in New Zealand, North America and the 2024 Paris Olympics.

Through Culture and Art Punu Creative Industries strives to create change....

PCI ↔ VISION

Punu Creative Industries has a Vision to utilise Culture and Art to encourage and create:

- ❖ Connection
- ❖ Identity
- ❖ Creativity
- ❖ Cultural Exchanges
- ❖ Community Development
- ❖ Youth programs
- ❖ Cultural Awareness
- ❖ Economic Development
- ❖ Emotional and Social Wellbeing

PCI ↔ Social Impact

PCI ↔ Gallery

Punu Creative Industries has a broad and unique collection of carvings available for display, installation, distribution and sale. These pieces are also complimented by specific commissioned pieces which can be specifically designed to meet requirements

PCI ↔ Gallery

Email: admin@iaservices.au
Mob: 61 0459 190 638
<https://punucreativeindustries.com>