

Dear Dyess Grace Church

Hello! I hope this letter finds all of you well. Today is 2-22, I received a care package from you guys! I want to tell you all thank you! Not only was it a pleasant ~~surprise~~ gift, it's one of the best I've received in years! (missed a couple of B-Days, I think that tends to happen the older ya get!) I have kept up the prayers here! And I pray that you guys continue to do so for me as well! Not only is the lord alive within this Tank here, but I am now leading Bible study every night! For the past 5 days we have grown from a group of 3 persons to a group of 12 persons! We each bring up parts of the bible that interest us and we read them and discuss them as I help to give insight to the many questions that my cell notes have! (Apparently I have a talent for speaking and the more I pray and nurse that talent, the more our group has grown!) I've played lead in many things, but Bible Study is a first! As I don't go by any set curriculum, every night is a wing it night! Somehow it all ends up in the right direction when god is involved! I will continue to pray for insight and wisdom, understanding to help spread a hope to the others in here dealing with heavy burdens that only the Christ and love can help ~~make~~ relieve. I've always been someone who speaks with conviction! Now I have found a direction in which to hone that skill! As well as brought together Brothers
